GIANTS TAKE SECOND GAME IN 10 INNINGS

MATHEWSON BIG FIGURE IN VICTORY

Shibe Park, Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—The New York Giants captured the second game of the world's series today, defeating the Philadelphia Athletics by a score of 3 to 0 in ten innings of play. The score:

New York 3 7 2
Philadelphia 0 8 2

Ten innings.

It was a pitching duel between two veterans—Mathewson and Plank until the tenth inning when Plank perceptibly weakened and coupled with a fearful throw by Collins taree Giants came scampering across the plate.

Mathewson was in difficulty in the last half of the ninth when he was combed for two hits with Doyle's error put Athletic runners on second and third with none out.

Then Mathewson, with splendid pitching and an air tight defense by the infield, kept the Athletics runless.

Each team has now won a game and the third contest will be played in New York tomorrow.

It was announced that the total attendance was 20,736, the total receipts being $49,640.

City is Baseball Mad.

All Philadelphia was baseball mad today, and thousands packed Shibe park to its capacity to see the second contest between the New York Giants, National league pennant holders, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of the American league.

A light drizzling rain fell during the night, and this morning a heavy mist overhung the city, making everything wet and dripping. However, there was assurance that today's game would be played if no more rain fell. Early today the probable order of the two teams was as follows:

NEW YORK.	PHILADELPHIA.
Herzog, 3b.	E. Murphy, rf.
Doyle, 2b.,	Oldring, lf.
Fletcher, ss.	Collins, 2b.
Burns, lf.	Baker, 3b.

Going After No. 2.

With one victory wrested from the Giants, the Athletics set about to capture the second contest of the series on the home ball yard and establish a good lead in the effort to win four out of the seven contests. All of 20,000 persons had passed through the turnstiles before play began.

The National leaguers were not a whit crestfallen over the defeat in New York yesterday and there was not a Giant who was not ready to declare that Bender would be beaten the next time the Indian went to the pitcher's box.

A scotch mist as thick as a Newfoundland fog kept the thousands on anxious benches, fearing a heavy downpour that would stop the game. An industrious brass band helped keep the minds of the fans from the threatening weather. The entire infield and far into the outer gardens was completely matted with canvass covers to keep off the dampness. Later the covers were peeled off, leaving the diamond in fine playing condition.

Crowd is Good Natured.

It was a good natured crowd that filled the big double decked grand stand and outfield stands. One victory was fine tonic to the spirits of the Athletic fans and they vigorously cheered the home team at fielding and batting practice. Massed in solid phalanx behind the Giants playing bench were several hundred New Yorkers, enthusiastic, hopeful and ready to encourage the National leaguers. Should Merkle be kept from New York's first base by his injured ankle the Giants would labor under a severe handicap, made all the greater also by the absence from the batting order of Center Fielder Snodgrass.

The umpires looked over the playing field at 11 o'clock and officially reported that the grounds were in fit condition for a game.

The gates of Shibe park were not swung open uptil 11:30 o'clock and the bleachers were the first to fill. All the covered stands, being reserved, were the last to fill. Lines of police were stationed in front of all the stands.

Players Take Field.

The Athletics were the first to come upon the field coming from beneath the grand stand one by one. They were garbed in their usual home uniforms of white stockings and black bands just above the ankles. They were followed shortly after on the field by the Giants who wore their traveling uniforms of gray with purple and gray stockings. Merkle limped perceptibly as he came upon the field and it was apparent that as he passed the ball back and forth to Catcher Wilson that he suffered much pain. Merkle wore a heavy ankle brace.

The Athletics took up batting practice first and loud were the cheers when Home Run Baker sent a drive nearly over the fence on 21st street which the fans fondly called "Baker's alley." Eddie Plank

THE GAME PLAY BY PLAY

FIRST INNING.

Giants—Herzog popped out to Collins. Doyle out, on a short fly to Strunk. Plank used his famous crossfire ball and deftly worked the corners of the plate. Fletcher fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Athletics—Mathewson sent up a drop curve which missed the plate by scarcely an inch. The second ball pitched was a strike. Doyle made a horrible error on Murphy's bounder, the ball filtering through his legs. This gave the Athletic rooters a chance to cheer. Mathewson put two strikes over on Oldring and then Oldring promptly singled to left sending Murphy to second. McLean went down to consult Mathewson. Collins sacrificed, Snodgrass to Doyle, advancing Murphy and Oldring. Then came Home Run Baker to the bat. Mathewson's first pitch was a ball. Baker fouled off the next one. Baker fouled off another one and it was two strikes and one ball on the big Athletic batter. Baker fanned. Mathewson sending up a fadeaway for the third strike. Melanis flied to Burns. No runs, one hit, one error.

SECOND INNING.

Giants.—Plank had nice control and easily fanned Burns. Shafer filed out to Murphy. Plank shot two strikes over on Murray in quick succession and then gave him a ball. Murray flanned, reaching wildly for an out curve which he missed by a foot. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Athletics.—Doyle tossed out Strunk at first and made a nice play of it.

TWO DEATHS AS RACE RIOT TOLL

TROUBLE IS SUBDUED

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 8.—Two deaths instead of one may be the toll of yesterday's race riot at Romeo, a village near here. John Winfield, a negro, was killed in the attack of the jail, and today it was learned that another bullet had hit Lulu Gibson, a negress, in the head, inflicting a wound which probably will prove fatal. The deputy sheriff who rushed to Romeo from Joliet, reported today that no further outbreak was expected.

The negroes attacked the wooden jail and liberated Luta Gibson, a negress, who had been arrested for drunkenness. In the fight one negro was killed and the little jail was demolished. James Winfield, after calling out all the negro citizens, led an assault against the jail and had succeeded in liberating the woman when Village Trustee James Hausen opened fire. Winfield was killed. The disturbers dispersed. In the meantime calls had been sent here for help to suppress a race riot. A temporary jail was found and with the woman a prisoner in it, was kept under a special guard.

DETECTIVES COMB THE "BLACK BELT"

SUSPECT AT DELPHI

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Detectives combed the "black belt" on the south side today in search of the tall, powerful, copper skinned negro who lured Miss Ida G. Leegson, the art student, to a lonely spot outside the city limits Saturday night and strangled her with a silken cord. They obtained an excellent description of him from the pawn broker to whom he sold his victim's watch on Sunday morning. The negro also tried to sell a pen knife which bore Miss Leegson's name, but the dealer considered it worthless. The Leegson case is similar to that of Miss Emma Robinson, a nurse, who last April was lured to a vacant house on Michigan avenue. Miss Robinson's assailant called her on the telephone and asked her to come to the Michigan avenue address on a professional visit. When she arrived there a negro dragged her inside and attacked her. She recovered.

A negro said to conform with the description of the man wanted for the murder was taken from a box car at Delphi, Ind., today and will be held until Chicago detectives arrive there. Another negro suspect was arrested at the Union Stock yards in Chicago.

WILSON MAKES QUICK DENIAL

Never Classed Democrats Who Do Not Support Him as "Rebels."

NOT TRYING TO PROD SENATORS

President Cards Washington Newspaper Demanding to Be Set Right.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Reports that President Wilson was attempting to prod democratic senators into quick action on the currency bill and a published statement that he would class as a "rebel" any democrat who did not support him, brought out an emphatic denial from the white house today. The president made public the following letter:

"To the editor of the Washington Post:—Sir: I am quoted in your issue this morning as saying that any one who does not support me is no democrat, but a rebel. Of course I never said any such thing. It is contrary both to my thought and to my character, and I must ask that you give a very prominent place in your issue tomorrow to this denial.

"Very truly yours,
"Woodrow Wilson."

At the white house there was a disposition to look upon the currency situation as on the way to amicable adjustment. The president, it was said today, feels sure that Senator Reed, of Missouri, would soon join the administration supporters in the banking and currency committee and that Senator O'Gorman would in the end side with the majority. There was no such sanguine feeling, however, with respect to Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska.

"While there has been many published reports to the effect that the president was considering a statement charging the existence of a lobby by the big banks holding control over smaller banks to oppose the bill, the white house today declared the president would not issue such a statement at this time. Administration officials have referred, privately, however, to a visit of a prominent man to the senate banking committee and Representative Glass charged recently that the unnamed man had been "advised by some of the larger bankers of New York what they would like to have him say before the committee and had faithfully followed instructions."

SLAYS THREE IN RELIGIOUS MANIA

Young Englishman Kills His Fellow Church-Workers With a Pistol.

THEN TAKES OWN LIFE

Liverpool, Oct. 8.—In a fit of religious mania today a youthful church worker here, William McDonald, ran amuck with a loaded revolver and killed three of his fellow church workers. He then committed suicide. McDonald paid a round of visits to the residences of his colleagues in the church work just after midnight and shot them down in turn, afterward battering their bodies with a bludgeon.

Apparently there were no witnesses of the series of tragedies. The empty revolver and bludgeon were clasped in McDonald's hands when his body was found. The four young people were active workers for a sect known as the "Church of Humanity." One of the victims was Miss Crompton, daughter of the late Rev. Henry Crompton, former pastor of the "Church of Humanity." She was the leader of the "Liverpool Positivist" and was McDonald's religious tutor. It was in her room that the maniac committed suicide after killing his instructress.

HAD DESTROYED ALL MEMORANDA

HAD NO USE FOR 'EM

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Louis A. Sarecky, formerly Governor Sulzer's campaign secretary, under cross examination at the impeachment trial today, told how he had destroyed practically all of the check books, check stubs and memoranda in connection with contributions to the governor's campaign fund which were in his possession.

He also admitted omitting the contributions of prominent brewers from the campaign statement which he said he prepared and which the governor swore to and filed with the secretary of state. The cross examination of Sarecky was not completed at the close of the morning session. It had been searching into the minute details of his connection with the impeached executive and of his handling of the Sulzer campaign funds.

Sarecky declared he had no bank account in which he placed campaign con-

DEPUTY SLAIN BY STRIKERS

Ten Men Attack Him With Clubs After He is Shot in Head.

SICKENING CASE NEAR HOUGHTON

Violence Goes to Serious Extremes in Copper Mine Strike.

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 8.—James Pollock, a deputy sheriff, was killed today by copper mine strikers at the Isle Royale mine near Houghton. He was shot in the back of the head and attacked with clubs by a party of ten men and died an hour later.

Pollock was found by other deputies lying beside a road. His head had been so badly pounded that his brains were exposed.

Sheriff Cruse has made one arrest and expects to apprehend all of the men involved in the murder before night. The crime has caused much excitement in the Isle Royale district and feeling runs high.

Pollock was specially active as a deputy and had incurred the wrath of the strikers by vanquishing six of them in a first fight a few days ago. He was thirty-three years old.

Five women were arrested at the Baltic mine this morning for attacking and badly beating a workman and one man was taken on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

The strikers succeeded in preventing the Baltic mine employes from going to work.

IS BUSIEST DAY OF CELEBRATION

German Americans Enjoying a Great Program at St. Louis.

ELECTIONS ON TODAY

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 8.—This, the third day of the national convention of the German-American Alliance here, probably will be the busiest of the all-week centennial celebration of the liberation of Germany from the rule of Napoleon.

During today the next convention city will be chosen and officers for the ensuing year will be elected. Tonight there will be a giant entertainment of the delegates by local Germans at the Coliseum, one feature of which will be a chorus of 1,000 mixed voices.

The committee on the German theater has recommended to the convention that German companies be sent from one end of the country to the other under the direction of the alliance and that moving picture theaters be encouraged to show films depicting German life and history. The committee on singing societies recommends the founding of children's choruses for the purpose of awakening love for the German language in the young.

Non-Partisan Movement Sprang From the People and is Controlled By Them

(By the Non-Partisan City Central Committee.)

To the Voters of the City of Fort Wayne:

More than two-thirds of the states of the union have laws which give cities the right to adopt non-partisan forms of government. Among the states which have given their cities no such privileges is Indiana. Any city of this state which wishes to break away from spoils government must take individual initiative and put the effort upon its citizens. Many cities of Indiana are doing this. Non-partisan movements are proceeding in a score or more important centers of population. Foremost among these is Fort Wayne. The movement here has been placed in the hands of the people and in the widest sense it is their movement, started by them, supported by them and controlled by them.

Because the laws of the state have made no provision for non-partisan government is no reason that Fort Wayne should be made to suffer from spoils and misgovernment. The government of Fort Wayne belongs to the people of Fort Wayne. And if the people choose to leave their political organizations and join together to elect a local government free from partisan prejudices and obligations, they are not only doing what it is their right to do, and what it is proper for them to do, but also what it is their duty to do. If the burden of spoils is to be lifted and the blight of Hoseyism averted, there is no other way.

In choosing her aldermanic body, even the city of Chicago has learned that results can be achieved only through non-partisan action. During the past dozen years the character and efficiency of the Chicago city council has steadily risen. Why? Because the people there have learned and they have taught political leaders that it is an easy matter to pick the best men and vote for them, regardless of party.

Fort Wayne has set out upon a quest for non-partisan government. It has drawn together thousands of citizens from all of the partisan organizations. The movement is one of practical and effectual democracy. The movement does not represent the work of leaders and ringleaders, spoilsmen and office-hunters. It is of and for the people.

The Belated Payment

A. L. LOPSHIRE, road foreman of engines of the G. R. & I. road, has a good memory—at least, he remembered, the other day, that he had forgotten something.

Mr. Lopshire's people had some out-of-town guests, who were downtown with him to see the sights of the metropolis, and as the day was very Indian-summery, it was a natural thing for the party to saunter into a drug-store and settle themselves expectantly within hailing distance of the soda fountain. The party consisted of Mr. Lopshire and four ladies. The refreshments were ordered and served. Mr. Lopshire was obliged to excuse himself, however, and hurry back to his work, as the ladies planned further activities for the afternoon. After the departure of Mr. Lopshire, the ladies finished their refreshments and then passed out.

During the night of that same day Mr. Lopshire was awakened from a troubled sleep. Something of a worrisome nature seemed to have crept into his think-box. He sat up in bed and wondered what was the matter. And then he knew. He had walked out of that drugstore without paying for the soda fountain refreshments. Even after he had sat up thinking about it for a while and decided to attend to the matter the first thing in the morning, he had some difficulty in getting back to sleep, but finally he did, after making himself believe that the ladies themselves had attended to it. Even that seeming breach of gallantry was better than to have the druggist consider him a panhandler.

The ladies then passed Out.

The awful truth was developed the next morning, however—the refreshments had not been paid for, and he lost no time in getting downtown and liquidating that refreshment bill.

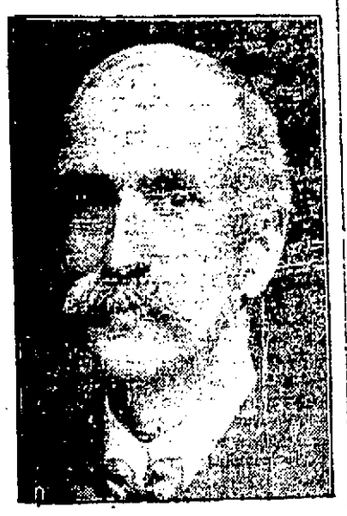
DEATH COMES TO WELL KNOWN MAN

Crawford Griswold Passes Away Very Suddenly at His Home.

DUE TO PARALYSIS

Suffering an attack of paralysis shortly after 10 o'clock last evening, Crawford Griswold, a retired Pennsylvania employe, and widely known veteran of the civil war, died an hour later at his home, 2513 South Calhoun street, without regaining consciousness. He was seventy-one years of age, and was pensioned by the Pennsylvania railway company four years ago.

Mr. Griswold had been in failing health for several months, but at no time had his condition been regarded as serious, and he appeared to be in his usual health yesterday. The attack came just a short time after he had retired for the night, and before medical aid could be summoned he lapsed into unconsciousness. Physicians were called, but their services were of no avail.



CRAWFORD GRISWOLD.
Retired Pennsylvania Employe and Civil War Veteran Dies.

For forty years Mr. Griswold was connected with the Pennsylvania company as an official in the bridge building department and the maintenance of way section. He was born at Chatham, N. Y., July 27, 1843, and resided with his parents at that place until he was a young man, when he took up the trade of bridge building. He was married at Delphos, Ohio, to Miss Louisa Kesler, and in 1880 came to Fort Wayne with his family and had resided here continuously since.

Surviving he leaves the following children: Mrs. Robert B. Davis, of Lima, Ohio; Mrs. Ernest E. Ellis, of Kokomo, and Mrs. Roy McGreagor, of Warsaw. One son, William H. Griswold, passed away in 1899, and two children died in infancy.

Mr. Griswold was a Scottish Rite Mason of high degree, and a member of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. There is scarcely a man in Fort Wayne who possessed a civil war record equal to Mr. Griswold's. He served for three years as a member of the First New York mounted rifles, and rose from the ranks to a commission as sergeant in the well known military organization. He was a member of Lawton-Wayne post of the G. A. R. and had served as commander of the organization.

tributions except that in the Mutual Alliance Trust company in New York.

"Did you have a check book to draw on that account during the campaign?" asked Stanchfield for the assembly managers.

"I did," he answered.

"Where is that check book?"

"I destroyed it."

"Did you destroy the check stubs?"

"Yes."

"What became of the cancelled checks?"

"Threw the checks away too."

"Did you also destroy whatever memoranda you may have had in connection with amounts deposited and expended?"

"Yes."

"What reason will you give us now for destroying all the evidence of the campaign contributions?"

"For the simple reason that I had no use for them," Sarecky answered.

"But didn't you know there were legal regulations safeguarding the receipts and expenditure of campaign contributions?"

"In a general way I did."

"And yet you chucked the check books and memoranda into an ordinary waste basket?"

"Yes."

When questions turned to the omission in the campaign statement of contributions by certain brewers Sarecky read in chronological order part of the list of contributors contained in the statement. With the exception of several contributions made by brewers and persons identified with the liquor interests the list compared exactly with the deposit slips made out by Sarecky and furnished the assembly managers by the Mutual Alliance Trust company.

"How do you account for the fact that this particular class of contributors is omitted?" questioned Mr. Stanchfield.

"I suppose their omission was accidental," Sarecky replied.

"When I made up that statement I thought I had all the memoranda on contributions before me but probably several sheets had been mislaid or lost."

Barry out on a high fly to Burns. Mathewson put over two strikes on Lapp and the latter fanned on the third ball pitched. It was nice pitching on the part of Mathewson. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING.

Giants.—It was noticed that Myers' right hand was completely done up in bandages and it is believed he was more seriously hurt than at first supposed. This may keep him out of the series. McLean went out on a pop fly to Barry. Snodgrass singled over third base. He limped badly going to first. Mathewson was given a good hand as he came to the plate. Plank tried to catch Snodgrass at first by giving a pitch to Lapp, who threw quickly to McInnis, but not in time to tag the runner. Mathewson sent a long hit to center, advancing Snodgress to third. On Strunk's throw toward third Mathewson moved to second. Wiltse ran for Snodgrass. The Athletic infield drew in to try to stop a possible run, there being only one out. Wiltse was out when Plank took Herzog's grounder and threw to Lapp, who ran down Wiltse on the line. Mathewson went to third and Herzog went to second on the play. Plank gave Doyle three balls before putting over a strike. His next pitch was a strike which cut the far corner of the plate. Doyle flied to Oldring and the Athletics crawled out of a very small hole. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Athletics.—Wiltse went to first base for New York. Plank out when Doyle threw him out at first. Mahewson threw out Murphy at first, the latter rolling a bunt down third base line. Oldring went out, Herzog to Wiltse. No runs, no hits, no errors. Mathewson pitched only four balls in this inning.

FOURTH INNING.

Giants—Barry threw out Fletcher at first on a nice stop and throw of a hard grounder. Burns went out on three pitched balls, all of which cut the plate. It was Burns' second strike out. Shafer was safe when Baker made a wild throw to McInnis. Shafer was out stealing, Lapp to Collins, Collins on Lapp's throw had Shafer beat by several feet. No runs, no hits, one error.

Athletics—Mathewson took Collins' bounder and threw him out at first. Mathewson leaped into the air to get the hard smash. Baker got a single to right which Doyle was barely able to knock down. Doyle threw out McInnis at first, Baker going to second. Strunk walked, it being the first base on balls Matty had given in the game. Strunk was forced at second, Doyle taking Barry's grounder and touching the bag. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FIFTH INNING.

Murray out on a fly to Oldring. McLean sent a nice single by third base. Wiltse fanned. Mathewson sent up a foul on which McInnis, Collins and Murray almost had a collision. Mathewson walked. It was Plank's first base on balls. Collins threw out Herzog at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Athletics—Lapp out, Doyle to Wiltse. Doyle did not have to move to take Lapp's grass cutter. Mathewson was pitching nicely. Plank got a single to right on which Doyle almost made a spectacular play, the ball bounding out of his gloved hand while on the dead run. Murphy out on a long drive to Burns who made a beautiful catch while running toward the centerfield fence. Plank was out when Fletcher took Oldring's splash and tossed to Doyle. No runs, one hit, no errors. It was a pitchers' duel of the finest order, both Plank and Mathewson holding the opposing batsmen in check.

SIXTH INNING.

Giants.—Doyle was out at first when Plank speared his bounder and tossed it to first. Fletcher sent up a foul to McInnis. It was the first foul fly caught today. Burns out on a fly to Murphy. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Athletics.—Collins almost got a safe hunt, but Umpire Connolly called it foul. Collins fanned. Baker fouled off the first two balls. Baker out, Fletcher to Wiltse. Fletcher made dazzling stop, going down behind second and spearing Baker's hot drive on the run. He made a quick recovery and held his man easily at first. McInnis fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING.

Giants.—Shafer out on a fly to Strunk. Murray out on a pop fly to Barry. McLean out on a long drive to Oldring, who had to back up against the left field fence to get the ball. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Athletics.—Strunk out on a fly to Burns, who made a dazzling shoestring catch, coming in on the run for the ball. Herzog threw out Barry. Lapp scratched a hit through Wiltse. It was a puzzling grounder. Plank line flied to Fletcher. No runs, one hit, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING.

Giants.—Wiltse out, Collins to McInnis. The crowd gave Mathewson a great cheer in recognition of his wonderful pitching. Mathewson out on a fly to Murphy, who took the ball off the tops of the grass and then turned a complete somersault. Herzog flied out to Strunk. It was a pretty running catch. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Barry was caught on the line when Wiltse took Plank's grounder and threw to McLean who threw to Herzog, who thre wto Mathewson, who touched out the runner. Lapp went to third and Plank to second. Mathewson threw out Murphy. No runs, two hits, one error.

TENTH INNING.

Giants—McLean singled to right. Grant ran for McLean. Wiltse sacrificed, Plank touching him on the line. Grant scored on Mathewson's single to center. On Herzog's grounder Collins threw to left field trying to catch Mathewson. Mathewson went to third and Herzog to second. Doyle was hit by a pitched ball. Plank was tiring fast and had lost his speed. Mathewson and Herzog scored on Fletcher's single, which bounded over Baker's head. Burns struck out. Shafer flied out to Murphy. Three runs, three hits, one error.

Athletics—Wilson ow catching for New York. Oldring out, Herzog to Wiltse. Collins fanned. Doyle took Baker's grounder and threw him out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

GIANTS TAKE SECOND GAME IN 10 INNINGS

indulged in batting practice, indicating that he was Manager Mack's pitching selection. During batting practice Manager McGraw came over and chatted with the Athletics players.

Mathewson was bundled up in a heavy double sweater and he was looked upon as the Giants' hurler for today's game.

Just Had to Do It.

The Giants are telling a funny story about Baker and Herzog who are old time friends and played on the same team together down on the eastern shore of Maryland when they were boys. As Baker was rounding third base on his home run yesterday Herzog shouted:

"That was a fine thing for you to do to us."

"Well, I just had to do it sometime, and this was as good as any," quickly replied Baker as he sped up toward home plate.

The photographers were as usual busy about the park darting here and there picturing the players in pose and practice. An automobile was presented to Walter Johnson, the star pitcher of the Washington club for being the most useful player to his club of any in the American league. The crowd gave Johnson a big cheer.

There was a conference of umpires at the plate in which Captain Danny Murphy and Manager McGraw participated.

It was announced that Plank and Lapp and Mathewson and McLean were the batteries for today's game.

The Easy Way to Banish Those Ugly, Hairy Growths

Every well regulated toilet table should find room for a package of powdered delatone to be used for banishing hairy growths. To remove objectionable hair or fuzz, make a paste with a little delatone and water and spread on hairy surface for about 2 minutes, then remove and wash the skin. This simple treatment is harmless and seldom requires a second application to remove every trace of hair. Any druggist can supply the delatone in an original package.

JURY DISAGREES IN WILL CONTEST

Heirs of William Schwartz, of Monroe Fail to Set Aside Testament.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

After being out all night, the superior court jury in the suit of Isaac and Marie Williamson vs. Andrew Gottschalk, executor of the will of the late William Gottschalk, of Monroe, Adams county, reported that an agreement was impossible and Judge Vanle discharged the twelve men from further consideration of the case. The suit was brought here on a change of venue from the Adams circuit court and the presentation of the testimony consumed all of last week. Arguments were presented yesterday and late in the afternoon the jury retired. The suit involves the disposition of a large estate left by William Schwartz, a wealthy bachelor, who bequeathed all he had to the town of Berne for the purpose of building a hospital, the condition being that the town appropriate an equal sum for the purpose. To his natural heirs he left the family portraits. The will has been attacked on the ground that the testator was not of sound mind when he executed his will and disposed of his property. The legal costs and hire of attorneys will make a heavy total.

Divorce is Set Aside.

Attorney Frank R. Dulin has received official notice that the divorce decree obtained by Martin W. Brown at Kalkaskia, Mich., has been set aside and the order giving him custody of his children rescinded. Brown is under bonds to the circuit court here for neglecting his children and he commenced habeas corpus proceedings here to obtain possession of them on the strength of his Michigan decree. Attorney Dulin got the divorce set aside by showing that it had been unlawfully obtained. A continuance of the habeas corpus proceedings was taken today.

Accuses His Wife.

The domestic affairs of a Fort Wayne couple have been transferred from the police tribunal to the superior court by the suit of John R. Auer against Elizabeth Auer for divorce. He alleges that she has associated with other men and has deserted him with the assertion that she no longer cared for him, but cared for another. Mrs. Auer had her husband arrested several weeks ago for assault and battery on her.

She Would Be Free.

Ollie J. Crowel asks the superior court to divorce her from James F. Crowel because he was guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment, called her names too vile to put in a complaint and did not provide reasonably for her support. The traction company is made a party to the suit in injunction proceedings to prevent the defendant from drawing his wages.

Notes of the Courts.

Judge Eggeman in the circuit court entered a Solomonic judgment in the case of Frank Pranger vs. John R. Hartzell, a suit to recover $338 for the installation of a heating plant in the defendant's home. Hartzell refused to pay until the plant had been through a cold weather test and Judge Eggeman reserved decision until January 21, next.

The will of the late John G. Schaefer, 432 East Jefferson street, has been probated. He leaves everything of which he died possessed to his wife, who is made executrix without bond or condition.

The suit of John H. Dressel vs. James F. McHugh for $5,000 for personal injuries, is on trial before a jury in the superior court.

REPORTED COLLAPSE DENIED.

Sulzer Never in Better Shape, Is Statement Given Out.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Reports that Governor Sulzer was on the verge of collapse were denied at the executive mansion here today. "He never was in better shape" was the word given out. The governor was said to be suffering from insomnia as a result of the hard work he has been doing in connection with this trial.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The defense in the Sulzer impeachment trial rested its case shortly before 4 o'clock without calling Governor Sulzer or his wife. Counsel for the board of managers then began to introduce testimony in rebuttal.

WIRE ORDINANCE GOES IN TUESDAY

Measure for Burying Lines Within Fire Limits Completed.

THE MUNICIPAL NEWS

An ordinance which provides for placing under ground all electric wires within the established fire limits of Fort Wayne has been drawn and will be introduced in the city council next Tuesday night. The ordinance, which in detail is modeled upon a similar measure that is working with satisfactory results in Cleveland, provides that all wires and poles employed for any electrical purpose, excepting poles and wires for arc lights, trolley posts and wires and ornamental posts and posts essential to the distribution of current, shall be placed in buried conduits. No exemption is made of municipal lines.

At present the ordinance is blank as to the detail fixing the linear rate at which the burying of the wires must be carried on. A conference with representatives of the telephone, telegraph and Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana traction companies and of the city lighting plant will be held in order to arrive at a practicable rate of progress. It is believed, however, that a rate of two miles per year can be established. The ordinance will take effect at the beginning of next year.

It is provided that each interest affected shall in October of each year file a schedule and plans of its underground work and submit it to the board of works, which body shall approve or modify such schedule and plans and not later than the following month return the same to the company submitting them. An exception to this provision is made for the year 1914, when the plans and schedule must be filed in January and the return made in February. If any company in any one year exceeds the legal and required amount of underground work it shall have credit for the excess in the requirement for the following year, and if the wires are buried in any section not now in the fire limits that section automatically becomes a part of the fire limits and no overhead construction can afterwards be established within it. Any territory thus affected becomes a part of the fire limits only for the purposes of the proposed act.

A penalty of $500 is provided for to cover each violation and each day of failure shall constitute a violation.

It is the purpose to establish such a rate of progress as shall not prove a hardship to any of the concerns affected by the ordinance. The board of works will be charged with the duty of working out details and enforcing the ordinance.

POLICE MATRON MATTER AGAIN.

Ordinance Will Be Brought Up in Council Tuesday Night.

The outlook is much improved for passing teh ordinance creating the office of police matron and fixing the salary. The measure has long been pigeon-holed in the council and the prospect of its passage looked poor. Some members who have opposed the measure have taken a new point of view and the ordinance will be called up next Tuesday night and started on its way to enactment.

The state law provides that the board of safety shall appoint a police matron in cities of this class and the local board did this several weeks ago, naming Miss Fannie Winch to the place. There does not appear to be any authority mandating the council to create the office, fix the salary and make provision for paying it. The board of safety went as far as it could and there the matter has stuck with the ordinance in the council. The Woman's league has been very active in promoting the measure.

WIDENING TWO STREETS.

Removing Houses From Wayne Trace and New Haven Avenues.

The Porter Construction company is at work removing houses from those portions of Wayne Trace and New Haven avenue that are to be widened and the improvement will go rapidly forward. The board of works passed resolutions for the work some time ago, after some difficulty with certain property holders who objected. These streets are one of the main arteries into and out of the city from the east and southeast and these narrow thoroughfares were an embarrassment. The improvement is a part of the general scheme to make the city connections with the great highways what they ought to be. Resolutions for sidewalks on both streets will be considered by the board of works in a few days.

PROPERTY OWNERS CONSENT.

Park Board Will Replat Part of Lakeside to Widen Boulevard.

Secretary Charles J. Steis reported to the park board at this afternoon's meeting that he had obtained consent of all the affected property owners to a replatting of the property abutting on Anthony boulevard comprised in plat B of Lakeside park addition. The board will order Park Engineer Marriott Price to make a survey of the property for replatting and prepare plans for widening Anthony boulevard to a width of 100 feet from Lake avenue to a point near the Maumee river. The working of widening the thoroughfare and building sidewalks will be inaugurated in the spring. The improvement will be made without cost to the city, the land for the widening being provided for in the replatting.

The new sidewalks and curbing on Thieme drive will be accepted by the park board today.

REGISTRATION EXPENSES.

Messrs. Bauer, Haller and Braun, committee of the city council on elections, will hold a meeting this evening and check up expenses incurred by the city on account of the registration of voters for the municipal elections. The list refers only to the registration of last Monday. The expenses include printing, rental for the registration places and the pay of the registration clerks and inspectors. Until the bills have been canvassed and approved the comptroller cannot make any payments.

STEAM SHOVEL ON CRESCENT.

The Grace Construction company today installed its steam shovel on Crescent avenue and began excavations for the pavement of that street.

The Moellering Construction company today began to lay brick on the pavement of Harrison street from the elevation work to the old pavement and on Grand street from Calhoun to Harrison.

DIES ABOARD WARSHIP.

Kendallville, Ind., Oct. 8.—"Deeply regret to announce the death today of Bruce McNair of apoplexy. Funeral here Wednesday.—Commander Robertson, U. S. S. Denver."

This telegram received Tuesday morning by Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McNair tells of the sudden death of their son, Bruce McNair, aged 23, a former well known Kendallville boy, for the past three years a yoeman in the United States navy. The end came on board the steamship Denver Monday morning and while in the port of Corinto, off the west coast of Nicaragua. While no particulars have been received beyond the brief telegram from the commander of the boat, it must have been sudden and without warning, for no previous word had been received by the parents as to his illness. In fact just a week ago a letter was received from him at Corinto and he told of the return to the fleet from the Panama canal and declared that he was in excellent health.

TYPHOID AT WARSAW.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 8.—A number of cases of typhoid fever has been reported in this city and the scare seemingly is going the rounds. Five cases alone are reported at the McDonald hospital, while there are two or three under the attention of trained nurses. Charles Franklin, son of C. F. Franklin, superintendent of the Winona Interurban Railway company, is ill at the hospital with the fever, and this morning is said to be much better. Alvin Roper, the pianist and formerly of Winona college, is confined to the hospital with the fever, but showed improvements Monday. It is feared that other cases will develop later on, several in the city being ill now with fever, which is in too much of an early stage to determine definitely what the outcome will be.

WATERLOO VETERAN DIES.

Waterloo, Ind., Oct. 8.—Fred C. Waterman, of Waterloo, who has been identified with the G. A. R. organization and is known to every old soldier in the county, passed away quietly at his home. Mrs. Waterman sleeping at his side heard him groan and gasp, and that was the end. Mr. Waterman was one of the early printers and worked on the leading papers of Milwaukee. At the opening of the war he was working at the case and responded to the call to arms. He fought through the war in the Iron Brigade and was in the heart of the first day's battle at Gettysburg and was captured by the rebels. Last summer he made the trip to Gettysburg and saw the court house where he was a prisoner. He came back to DeKalb county after the close of the war, was married and two sons and his wife survive him.

CHILD NEAR DEATH IN WATER.

Goshen, Ind., Oct. 8.—Frances, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pestow, had a narrow escape from drowning in the race at the foot of Plymouth avenue. She was saved by John Dewberry, who happened to be passing at the time. The child had been wading in the water and probably lost her footing in the deep water and went down.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing at any time.—Adv.

KILLED WHILE BLOWING STUMPS.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 8.—James Munson, one of the pioneer residents of Kosciusko county, met death while blowing stumps on his farm, about two miles southeast of Warsaw. The circumstances surrounding the death of Mr. Munson are unknown. No one was with him at the time the accident occurred. His dead body was found by his son, Clever Munson. Mr. Munson went out early to work in the new ground a quarter of a mile from his home. When he failed to make his appearance at the house at the dinner hour his son went out to investigate and found the aged man's dead body. The body was found near a stump that had been blown out with dynamite and it is supposed that he placed a charge under the stump and the explosion came before he was able to reach a place of safety. It is not known just when the accident occurred. Mr. Munson was 76 years of age. He is survived by his wife and two children.

ARRESTED FOR IMMORALITY.

Decatur, Ind., Oct. 8.—John Reichard and Dessie Cox, indicted by the grand jury at its last session on a charge of illicit relations, were arrested at the home of Reichard's father in this city. About the time the indictments were returned the parties left Adams county for Michigan, where they have since resided until their return to this city quite recently. Their presence in the city became known to the officials and the arrest followed. Bond had been fixed in the case in the sum of $200 each, and this was given and their release secured. The parties now claim to have been married some time ago in Michigan.

MAY HAVE BEEN DELPHOS NEGRO.

Delphos, O., Oct. 8.—Whether or not a man lynched near Detroit was Willie Davis, colored, of Dalphos, is the question which is worrying Mr. and Mrs. John R. Davis, of South Delphos, parents of the young man. About ten days ago a message from Detroit appeared stating that William Davis, colored, of Ohio, had been lynched near that city, and Mr. and Mrs. Davis now fear that the one who met death might have been their son as they have been unable to find trace of him since. "Willie" Davis, as he was familiarly known here, is about twenty-one years of age. He went to Detroit early in the spring and according to information received by the parents here took employment in that city.

BARN AND CONTENTS BURNED.

Columbia City, Ind., Oct. 8.—John E. Gilbert, owner of an eighty acre farm a mile and a half north of Churubusco, had a mysterious fire break out on his place at night, just as he was going to bed, and it destroyed his barn, with contents, causing a loss of $2,000 or more. An insurance policy in the Farmers' Mutual lapsed a month ago. He lost two horses, oats, wheat, hay, wagons, buggies, harness, farm implements, and all that was in the barn. It was in a mass of flames when he looked from the window, as he was taking off his trousers. He is in poor shape to lose the loss, and does not think that it was of incendiary origin. He rather thinks that it came from spontaneous combustion.

COLORED TRAMPS HURT.

Albion, Oct. 8.—Robert and Will Crawford, uncle and nephew, respectively two colored tramps hailing from the sunny land of North Carolina, are inmates at the county infirmary at Albion recovering from injuries they received Tuesday morning when they were ordered off a moving Lake Shore train west of here. Robert is suffering with a fractured collar bone, his face is badly lacerated and his limbs otherwise bruised, while Will Crawford was painfully bruised about the face and body. Both were stealing a ride on the freight train when ordered off by the train crew.

FOR ASSAULT ON HIS WIFE.

Portland, Ind., Oct. 8.—John O. Wheeler, of Liber, one mile south of this city, was released from the county jail when he deposited a number of watches and other jewelry with Justice of the Peace A. G. Lewis, to secure the payment of a fine and costs assessed against him for assault and battery on his wife. The charge was filed against Wheeler by William Rhamy, former husband of Wheeler's wife.

DIES OF CANCER.

Delphos, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Walburga Koch died at the home of her son, Henry A. Lang, after a long illness with cancer. Mrs. Koch was a native of Germany and had been a resident of Delphos since childhood. Mrs. William Beina, of Mt. Clemens, Mich., a daughter, and Henry A. Lang, of Delphos, a son, survive.

STRUCK BY AN AUTOMOBILE.

Van Wert, Ohio, Oct. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Gerdeman, of Washington township, were the victims of an accident and narrowly escaped serious injury when a cozy cab in which they were riding was struck by an automobile and overturned and the upper portion of the rig was practically demolished.

AVOID SEDATIVE COUGH MEDICINES.

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrences of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world-wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. Facts in Nature

FOR centuries it has been known that Nature's most valuable health giving agents for the cure of disease are found in our American forests. Over forty years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N.Y., used the powdered extracts as well as the liquid extracts of native medicinal plants, such as Bloodroot and Queen's root, Golden Seal and Stone root, Cherry bark and Mandrake, for the cure of blood diseases. This prescription as put up in liquid form was called and has enjoyed a large sale for all these years in every drug store in the land. You can now obtain the powdered extract in sugar-coated tablet form of your medicine dealer, or send 50c in one-cent postage stamps for trial box to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N.Y., and tablets will be mailed, postage prepaid.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, red blood, invigorates the stomach, liver and bowels and through them the whole system. Skin affections, blotches, boils, pimples and eruptions—result of bad blood—are eradicated by this alterative extract—as thousands have testified.

Send 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only on a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, clothbound. ADDRESS DR. R. V. PIERCE, BUFFALO, N. Y.

Corporal Johnson, of Lakeside, will leave next Sunday for a tour through the west. At Bronson, Kan., he will visit a brother whom he has not seen for thirty years.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Heb. 4:1-16.

1 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, Today, after so long a time; as it is said, Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

City Purchases and City Tests

Another important reform purposed by the non-partisan movement in Fort Wayne, and set forth explicitly in its platform, deals with the purchase of the many thousands of dollars worth of supplies used by the city each year. These include the countless items entering into the work of street paving, sewer construction, sidewalk building, street repairs, the waterworks stations and lines, the municipal lighting system, the fire department, fuel, and departmental supplies for the city hall.

As an instance of the application of common-sense business methods to city affairs, the non-partisan movement is by its platform committed to the immediate creation of a city purchasing and testing department, the particular duty of which shall be to see that Fort Wayne gets just what it pays for in the way of supplies both as to quality and quantity. This is to the end, declares the platform, "that purchases for the city from partisan favorites without competition may become impossible and the people's money be carefully conserved and economically expended.

Still more: The non-partisan platform commits its candidates to providing for and insisting upon a proper test of all materials, in order to be absolutely certain that they are up to specified grade. This is especially important in the matter of paving and other street work. It is highly essential that the material so used be first subjected to competent laboratory test by men who are qualified to do this particular work. The property-owner who is paying for street paving and similar work has a definite and unquestioned right to be certain that the work into which the city is putting his money is not only well done, but that the materials used are in all respect up to specified grade. No less is it his right to know that all the purchases of the big municipal corporation in which he is interested as a stockholder are made upon the same basis. The federal government, however trivial, however important the work in which it is engaged, exacts a definite and certain test of very portion of material used. Fort Wayne has not done so. It has insisted on practically no tests whatever. Too often, also, its inspections have been of doubtful value because inspectors charged with seeing that work is done in accordance with specifications have been selected because they were good party men and expert political workers rather than because of any ability they possessed to see that the city isn't gouged.

The proposal to establish a purchasing and a testing department to have supervision over supplies of every character used in municipal work constitutes one of the numerous excellent reasons for the support of Mr. Buck and his associates on the non-partisan ticket in Fort Wayne this year. The change from partisan politics to sound business methods will mean money saved for every tax-payer,

It is gratifying to know that the United States court of appeals has upheld the lower courts in the decision supporting the Indiana board of health in its refusal to permit the sale of food stuffs containing benzoate of soda as a preservative. It marks the victorious close of a long fight for purer food in this state. The right of the health board to makes rules governing the sale of foodstuffs is completely upheld by the decision of the court of appeals.

WIFE RECEIVES AWFUL MAULING

Joseph Gonshor Arrested and Fined for His Brutality.

TWICE IN A NIGHT

Joseph Gonshor, a Pole residing on Gay street near the McKinnie farm, was fined $5 and costs by Justice Graebner today for beating his wife last night. Gonshor could not pay and is in jail and his wife has employed an attorney to get a divorce.

Gonshor is an old offender at wife beating. Last night he gave his wife, a frail little woman, an awful beating, knocking her down and choking her. The woman's screams brought in the neighbors, who drove Gonshor away. Later he returned and gave his wife another mauling and Sheriff Gladieux was called. Deputies Branning and Mills went out and arrested the brute.

Gonshor was in police court a few weeks ago for wife beating, after having eluded the police for a week. He was found hiding under a bed at home. He is a big strapping fellow, but cringed when Judge Mungovan told him to strip his coat for a lashing by Officer Joe Degitz. He was released on his promise to cease his cruelty to his wife.

THE DEATHS

KESSENS.

William Kessens, aged eighty years, a resident of Fort Wayne for nearly a half century, died at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the family residence, 1111 East Washington boulevard, after an illness of several months, due to complications.

WILLIAM KESSENS.

He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church and of the St. Joseph school society of that congregation. He was a charter member of the Kreis Huenmling society. Mr. Kessens was a retired teamster and was well known throughout the city.

Surviving he leaves the widow and the following children: Christian and Henry Kessens, Mrs. George Fry, Mrs. Joseph Heidenrich, Mrs. William Wagner, Mrs. George Heidenrich and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clara Kessens, all of this city. One brother, Christian Kessens, resides in Germany. He is also survived by twenty-two grandchildren.

Bats Amuse Statesmen.

Speakerless, quorumless and clerkless the house met again today and renewed its ineffectual attempts to work on the urgent deficiency bill. A flock of bats volplaning in the chamber kept Congressmen amused while Republican Leader Mann forced roll calls.

Three Battleships Proposed.

Big navy men in the administration were jubilant today over the prospect of three battleships being proposed in the naval appropriation bill as an administration policy. Semi-official announcement that such a building program might have the support of the white house to put the United States back in the place it occupied among naval powers before the last congress reduced the program to one dreadnought, attracted wide attention in congress. A democratic house of the last congress reduced the current appropriation to provide for one ship only on the grounds of economy.

The understanding among those close to administration leaders was that an "adequate navy" policy as endorsed by President Wilson, would provide for two battleships each year hereafter and less expenditures for the navy ashore and on smaller craft.

A. SIMMINGER DIES IN DENVER

Well Known Director of Singing Societies Expires Suddenly.

HAD JUST GONE WEST

Adolph Simminger, well known director of the Saxonia and Concordia Singing societies of Fort Wayne, and for seventeen years employed as head tuner at the Packard company's plant, died suddenly Tuesday evening at Denver. News of his death was received here this morning in a telegram from Mrs. Simminger, who with her husband and two daughters moved to Denver just one week ago, to reside.

Mr. Simminger had been in ill health for some time, and a year or so ago was in a critical condition from tuberculosis. At that time he went to Denver, but later returned to Indiana, and took treatment at a tuberculosis sanitarium at Indianapolis. He was discharged as cured from that institution, and after returning to Fort Wayne decided to move to Denver to live permanently. The telegram contained no details concerning his death, and a brother, Fred Simminger, has gone to Denver to assist the widow in bringing the remains back to this city.

Mr. Simminger was born in New York city, and he was 41 years of age. He learned his trade as a piano tuner in the Weber piano factories, and when the Packard company of this city first engaged in the manufacture of pianos he was employed as a head tuner. He is survived by the widow and two daughters, Margaret and Louise, and six brothers, William Simminger, of Cleveland; Amiel Simminger, of Alberta, Can., and Henry, Frederick, George and Charles Simminger, of this city. He had for years been popular in local German societies, and as a pianist of exceptional ability, he had been prominently identified in local musical circles.

The remains will be brought back to Fort Wayne for interment.

BEDFORD'S PIES WERE SPILLED.

Malicious Jokers Remove Burrs From Wagon Wheels.

When Samuel Bedford, who conducts a pie factory at 527 Montgomery street, started forth with his wares this morning, he had driven his wagon only from his alley to the front of his place when there was a heave, a lurch to port and then a foundering of the craft with all its cargo of toothsome pastry. Pies were mixed until they became puddings and the wagon was a worse mess inside than out. Some one with malice prepense had removed the burrs that secure the wheels of the pie cart and it required but a short trip to roll the wheels off. Bedford notified the police and Detective Sergeant Ward Hall is looking for the mischief-makers.

INDIANA SYNOD AT PERU CLOSES

Judge S. O. Stimpson, Terre Haute, was chosen vice moderator, the Rev. L. P. Marshall, Bloomfield, stated clerk; the Rev. W. F. Padgett, Evansville, permanent clerk, and Elder Joseph P. Durham, treasurer.

A resolution to take money from the Sunday school departments fund for use in promoting this work in Kentucky was opposed by Moderator Odell and it was tabled.

Because of the absence of a number of members of the board, at the meeting of the Hope Hospital association directors Tuesday evening, no decision was reached as to the future of the hospital, and the matter was postponed until all the members of the board could attend a special meeting to be held within the next week or two. The question to be settled is whether an effort shall be made to raise $30,000 by bond issue to clear the institution of its indebtedness, whether to ask the county to purchase it or whether it will be wise to close the hospital.

The semi-annuol meeting of the directors of the Peoples' Trust and Savings company was held Tuesday evening, and after declaring the usual dividend, payable on October 11, the sum of $7,500 was added to surplus, bringing the total up to $62,500.

MAKE PLANS FOR BIG GATHERING

Expect Crowd at Meeting of Lincoln National Road Boosters

FROM TWO COUNTIES

At a meeting held this afternoon at the Commercial club final arrangements were made for the mass meeting of county, township and city officials from Allen and Noble counties, to be held Friday night for the purpose of making a united effort to induce members of the Lincoln national highway commission to carry out their original plans and establish the coast to coast road through northern Indiana by way of Fort Wayne.

Committees were to be appointed to entertain the incoming delegates to the meeting, which will be attended by township trustees from each township of the two counties, and other county and city officials, as well as other persons interested in the national road. Among other features on the evening's program will be a banquet and among the speakers will be Carl Fisher, president of the Indianapolis motor speedway, and Charles A. Bookwalter, formerly of this city, the republican candidate for mayor of Indianapolis.

The session held this afternoon is being attended by hotel and restaurant proprietors and officials and directors of the Commercial club.

Mail Order Frauds Upon the Eye

Here are two cuts of Brass Beds, each Bed having two-inch posts and the same size rods between the posts. The one picture lies to the eye, the other tells the truth. The one picture would lead the eye to think the posts were very heavy and about six inches in diameter, instead of two inches, as they really are.

A mail order house uses the picture that lies and calls it, "This Massive Brass Bed," whereas the fact is, that it is the lightest Brass Bed that is made. But the woman with the Mail Order Catalogue in her hand, looks at the picture and says to her husband, "Here, look at this great Massive Brass Bed that I can buy for $10; it's twice as heavy as the one I saw in town the other day at that price."

Then she orders it, and when she gets it and pays the freight, she finds she has a "light" brass bed, such as is shown in the picture above which tells the truth, and not the "Massive" one as shown above in the picture which lies.

But the Mail Order House has her money and she is helpless. She can only resolve not to be fooled but once.

But not being fooled at all is better and wiser. Go to the FOSTER FURNITURE COMPANY in the first place, where you can see what you are buying and where you will find everything to be just as represented.

The Mail Order Catalogues are filled with these lies to the eye from the first page to the last.

NON-PARTISANS IN THIRD WARD

Townsend, Lechler and Buck Will Address Voters Friday Night.

EXPECT A BIG CROWD

The non-partisans of the Third ward will hold a big meeting Friday evening in a tent to be erected at the corner of Brackenridge and Webster streets. This will be the first non-partisan gathering in the Third ward, which has long been recognized as one of the strong Buck districts of the city, and a large crowd is anticipated. Arrangements for the meeting were completed today by Lawrence Heiny, the Seventh precinct committeeman, and officials of the speaking committee.

The complete list of speakers has not been appointed but among others who will take are Attorney Howard Townsend, James A. Lechler, president of the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor, and Charles H. Buck, the non-partisan candidate for mayor.

MOUNTED GUARD OVER WEDDING

John Bachman, After Beating, Gets Gun and Menaces Polish Folk.

NEWS OF THE POLICE

John Bachman attempted to take charge of the celebration of a Polish wedding at 1335 Horace street last night and began to sort out the marriage guests on some kind of sheep-and-goat theory. Those who failed to qualify he ordered to beat it and kept on the job until he was thrown outdoors and given a clip that laid his left temple open. He was taken home twice by Officer Godfrey, but would not remain, and finally got a shot gun and mounted guard over the feast. He threatened to wipe out the entire Polish population in Fort Wayne and make Freedom shriek louder than she did when Kosciusko fell. Then Bachman and his beliggerent jag were carted to the police station. This morning he was still too drunk for trial and his case went over until tomorrow.

Believe Drudy is the Man.

The police are well convinced that Thomas Drudy, a paroled convict, is the man who has made night attacks on women in this city. Miss Ella Wehnert, 637 Wagner street, today looked at Drudy and said that in many ways he answered to her recollection of the man who made an assault on her on Spy Run avenue Sunday night, but would not declare a positive identification. The police have found a man who says he met Drudy on Superior street Monday night a few minutes after Miss Helen Speck was attacked by a strange man on the steps of her home, 410 VanBuren street. The man had been running and was breathless. He said he had just "got in bad" and then hurried away. Parole Officer A. H. Knosman of Michigan City prison, who is now in Decatur in charge of Fred Klem, a Fort Wayne convict who is defendant in a civil suit, talked over the telephone last night with the local police and said Drudy had lately been paroled from the prison after serving part of a sentence for attempting a criminal assault in Richmond. Drudy was arraigned this morning on a charge of loitering and his case was continued a week. He went to jail in default of $1,000 bond. Several women residing in flats on Barr street, opposite the police station, whose homes were invaded by Drudy yesterday, will testify against him. Mrs. Jesse Sanders says the man seized her and attempted to throw her down, but she seized a chair and drove him out. Drudy was paroled to the Bass Foundry and Machine company here and had worked several days. The probability is that he will be returned to prison for violating his parole and that local prosecution will be dropped. Drudy has declared he will "not go back to prison alive."

Aged Veteran Returns.

Dave Bonworth, who ran away from the national soldiers' home at Dayton and broke into custody of the Fort Wayne police several weeks ago was in again today. Patrol Chauffeur Cy Andrews found him down and out in an alley back of West Main street yesterday. Bonworth had $36 in cash on him and hovering about was a strange but solicitous friend. Officer Andrews sent Bonworth in for protection. Judge Mungovan let him go and Bonworth said he would go to Canton, O. He has been staying with friends at Monroe and Linn Grove and said he had got "awful dry" down there.

Moocher Pokes Ungenerous Man.

Hugh Franklin met Verne Moses on Harrison street and begged the gift of a dime for coffee. Moses was going to be charitable, but was too slow about it and Franklin swore at him. Then Moses told him "just for that you get nothing," and drew his pursestrings. The cadger then smashed Moses in the jaw, cutting a bad gash. Franklin will spend twenty days in jail for it.

Other City Court Cases.

James Bigel conducted his own defense in the trial of a charge that he had committed assault and battery on John Cowell at the Pennsylvania's track elevation work. There was no doubt about the battery. Cowell's features proved that and Bigel didn't deny it anyway. Besides he had witnesses present who testified to the thoroughness of the thrashing he gave Cowell. The fight started over the loan of a dollar. The case was continued to enable Cowell to get his witnesses in court.

Charles Dittweiler, a barber just arrived, got drunk and then went to sleep in the public comfort station and was hard to dislodge. He was allowed to go.

Enroute from Van Wert to Huntington, Sam Kangzetter, tarried in Fort Wayne too long and the souse he got was more freight than he could pull. He promised to resume his journey at once and was turned loose.

Jim Moran and Pat O'Brien, both drunk and a nuisance on the streets, got fifteen days each. Harry Overly said "Sure I was stewed," and thought it was a good joke on himself. He was released. John Doe was drunk and ugly, but was ashamed and penitent and got off.

The case against James Brown for petit larceny was dismissed on motion of the prosecutor because the prosecuting witness had left the city.

The case against Lemuel A. Smith for grand larceny was continued until the 18th inst. to enable him to get a lawyer and prepare a defense. His bond was continued at $500 and on a drunk charge Harry Twinkler was also held under bond as a witness.

The New $3,200 Electric Truck of the Foster Furniture Company

Above is shown the finest Electric Retail Delivery Truck ever brought to Fort Wayne. With it the Foster Furniture company hopes to absolutely solve the question of prompt delivery of all goods sold.

The unusually large increase this year in the business of this firm has literally snowed under its delivery department, in spite of the aid rendered by their big gasoline truck, but now with the two trucks they hope they have fully overcome the difficulty and to be able to practically deliver all goods on the day of purchase.

The Gasoline Truck will take special charge of the country and out of town deliveries within twenty to twenty-five miles of Fort Wayne, which will guarantee to customers from a distance the free delivery of their goods "in apple pie order."

The Electric Truck will have special care of city deliveries and the near-by suburbs. The aim of the "Big Store" is to each year give an improved service to its 250,000 customers of Fort Wayne and northeastern Indiana.

Reed—App.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's Catholic church this morning at 9 o'clock in the marriage of Miss Alma App, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. App, of Washington boulevard east, and Mr. Luke W. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Reed, who live on the Maysville road. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. John R. Quinlan as Mgr. J. H. Oechtering is indisposed. Many friends of the bride and groom were present but the wedding breakfast at the home of the bride was attended by only the immediate family relatives. The bride had one bridesmaid, Miss Mary Reed, of Minneapolis, a cousin of the groom and a brother of the bride, Mr. Clem M. App, officiated as groomsman. The bride made a very pretty and attractive appearance in her wedding costume. Her gown was made of brocaded charmeuse, with a train. The waistline extended high enough to make a stylish effect for the bodice of Venetian lace. The bride wore a veil held to her hair with a wreath of rosebuds and she carried her prayerbook with a marker of white satin ribbon with clusters of real lilies of the valley. Miss Reed wore a modish pink charmeuse gown made with white chiffon drapery and a pink hat trimmed with pink plumes. Her flowers were a bouquet of pink roses. After the marriage service the bridal party went to the bride's home where they received the congratulations of their relatives. The bride's table at breakfast was done in pink and white roses and ferns. The house was trimmed with Autumn foliage and flowers and looked exceedingly pretty. Wild clematis, bright colored leaves and vines trimmed the chandeliers and doorways. This afternoon the bride and groom left for a five weeks' trip during which they will visit in St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn.; Sheboygan, Wis.; Cleveland, O., and will end the trip in Chicago, where Mr. Reed will attend the Dairymen's convention, to which he is a delegate. Mr. Reed is proprietor of the Cadillac dairy and is a prosperous and well known dairyman. On their return home Mr. and Mrs. Reed will go to housekeeping at once in their own home, a pretty bungalow at the corner of Rudisill avenue and Calhoun street, which Mr. Reed has just built. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue cloth suit with Persian plaid silk blouse and a white beaver hat with trimmings of pink. Miss Agnes Reed, of Minneapolis, Minn., was an out of town guest at the wedding.

MANY HEAR PUPILS' RECITAL.

Students of Mrs. Clara Zollars Bond Give Good Program.

Elks' hall was well filled last evening by friends of Mrs. Clara Zollars Bond and of her pupils, who gathered to hear the annual recital of students in voice work. The program was a long one and twenty-one students were heard in solo work besides a chorus of women sang a descriptive concerted work of much beauty, entitled "A Midsummer Night," by Bliss. Miss Helene Spindler and Miss Marie Sommers accompanied the singers, the heavier part of the work of devolving upon Miss Spindler whose accomplishment in this direction is well known.

Each pupil sang two solos, referring only to note books for the words, and each showed evidence of careful training in tone placement, accuracy in pitch, enunciation and other good qualities necessary. Not every voice kept where it belonged to be sure, and tones that struck the palate or staid in the throat were heard among the younger singers and likely caused them as much disturbance as they did their instructor. There were few instances of deviation from correct pitch, however, and on the whole the recital was representative of well directed effort and musical progress of a satisfying kind.

The young blind girl, Miss Carver, whom Mrs. Bond has taken much pains with displayed a much maturer and equal quality tone and she sang with far more expression than at previous appearances. Mrs. Margaret Spencer Thomson, Garrett, Miss Agnes Stemen, Miss Florence Lang, Mrs. James Elliott, Mrs. H. H. Rogers, all students of Mrs. Bond, were advanced singers whose pleasing work brought forth appreciative applause. Miss Lang displayed a greater freedom in tone production that was very noticeable. Of newer voices perhaps none was more of a surprise than Miss Moran's. She displayed quality and possibilities in tone production and a natural feeling for singing that are very promising. Miss Gillis was another singer whose tones and enunciation were gratifying. Miss Lipkey is a young singer with a naturally good voice who has made excellent progress. Miss Lahnum's voice is sweet, flexible and smooth, Miss Cabler's natural qualifications and rich quality of tone have been noted before within recent weeks. Mrs. Wiener has a pretty voice and so has Miss Braughton, of Waterloo. Miss Alma Dreier showed much improvement in every way. Mrs. Horton, Miss Sackman, Mr. and Miss Zimmerman, Mrs. Briggs, Miss Gaugh and Miss Hines were others of the program who showed various commendable qualities of good work and improvement. Mr. Zimmerman evinces natural musical feeling and taste which will stand him in good stead when his tones are under better control. Miss Zimmerman's voice is much more pleasing in its lower range than in the register she used in singing the duet, "On the Adrian Sea" by Temple.

Miss Anna Philley gave several readings and of the children's part of the program there were a piano solo by Melvin Honeck, a soprano solo by Herbert Stephens, a duet by Richard and Dorothy Schiefer, and some special work by Lillian Polhamus in tableaus. It was a good program and everybody present enjoyed it.

AT THE TEMPLE

Tonight is the last performance of the excellent bill of five acts that opened at the Temple theater last Sunday and which is headlined by Frank Bush, America's greatest story teller and Little Lord Robert, the smallest comedian on the American stage. The bill has been one of the best ever seen in this city because of the variety of the acts and the quality of them all and a packed house is expected at the last performance.

Starting tomorrow matinee the Temple will show five of the best acts ever brought to this city and the bill promises to be about the most advanced that Fort Wayne lovers of vaudeville have had the good fortune to see in some time. Headlining the bill is Percy Warem and Co. in the rollicking farce, The Boatswain's Mate." This act will come here direct from the Orpheum circuit and will be one of the highest priced sketches ever playing this city. Some startling feats will be shown by Mareena and Dalton Bros. in the acrobatic line. Although known to the vaudeville public but a short time, this act has already been conceded by the easterners as being about the best and most thrilling act of its kind on the stage today.

Tony and Norman will offer a little skit, "Just Nonsense," and promise round after round of laughter. Their act is an exceptionally clever one and their talk is all new.

The Cycling Brunettes have several new and original stunts besides the regular routine seen in any cycling act and this act will no doubt prove as big a thriller and enjoyment as any act on the bill.

Alice Leslie Hassen, who styles herself, "A Simple Country Girl," will make you laugh till the tears roll down your cheeks.

Souvenir Matinees.

Starting next Monday, the Temple management will give a souvenir matinee on Monday and Thursday of every week. This policy has been decided upon, and in order to give the people who attend the matinees something worth while, a fine Japanese cup and saucer will be presented every one who passes through the doors on Mondays and Thursdays hereafter. This feature added to the already splendid bills the Temple has been offering will no doubt draw tremendous crowds so it will be a good idea to come early on these days so as to get a seat before they are all taken. The cups and saucers are beautiful affairs and any housewife will be proud to have them in her home.

AT THE EMPRESS

At noon Thursday, the Six Diving Girls, now at the Empress theater will give an open air swimming exhibition in the pool at the Reservoir park. Consent was secured from the park commission yesterday to give the exhibition and those interested in acquatic sports can be assured of a real treat in the exhibition to be given by the girls. Among the members of the sextette are the Misses O'Neil and Byington, respectively the champion short and long distance swimmers among the feminine sex on the Atlantic coast. They have numerous cups and medals in proof of this claim. There is a little Japanese girl among the party and also a full blooded Indian girl. Each one is an expert swimmer and they will demonstrate the various strokes used by famous swimmers all over the world. The water in the pool is hardly deep enough to permit of diving. On Friday night at the Empress an amateur diving contest will be staged, open for members of both sexes. There will be the usual two souvenir matinees Thursday.

AT THE JEFFERSON

The feature tonight at the Jefferson is from the Eclair studio entitled "Jaques the Wolf," in two reels a story of the Canadian woods, featuring Oscar Lund as the trapper. He falls in love with two girls and develops a dual nature in many respects. The injury to the eye is highly dramatic, the subsequent scenes hold the interest and many of them are quite pleasing. The dramatic episodes are very compelling. Thursday both subjects are comedies, one an Imp, "Their Parents," and the other a Powers, "The Houseboat Elopement."

Recipe No. 1

In the Sentinel of Wednesdays and Saturdays for the next two months there will appear new recipes which will be of utmost interest to every woman and girl. Watch for them, and clip and paste them in a scrap book. The first recipe is that for

Georgia Split Biscuit

Pare and boil three large Irish potatoes until very soft. While they are still soft mash them finely; add a cup of blended lard and butter, two eggs beaten separately and a yeast cake dissolved in a pint of warm milk; finally enough Newveno flour to make a stiff sponge. When this is light add a heaping tablespoonful of salt and another of sugar; work in flour to make a smooth and satiny dough. After letting this rise again, roll it out on a bread board to the thickness of half an inch; cut into biscuits, butter each on the top and place over it another biscuit. Crowd them slightly in the pan to keep them from spreading and brush the tops with melted butter. They will make their last rising quickly and should be baked as any other rolls would be.

This is indeed enough to make one's mouth water with the mere reading. But try it, and be sure to use Newveno Flour, and you will have a fine and true southern biscuit.

That Large Sum to Be Spent on the Driving Park.

The promoters of the Driving Park addition, under the direction of Louis F. Curdes, have made plans for the improvements on the new addition which will cost $90,000. Unexpected requirements may boost this sum to a full $100,000.

Work has already been started on an extensive scale. Arrangements are being made for the demolition and removal of the grand stand and other buildings used by the fair association. The Grace Construction company has started its preliminary work for paving Forest Park boulevard and Florida drive, in the removal of the trees which stand in the path of the extended streets. Blasting is required to remove the stumps and roots.

Walks will be laid along State street this fall, the contract having been secured by A. Grosjean.

Several of the lots in the Driving Park addition have already been reserved by far seeing persons, but Mr. Curdes feels that a little more work on the improvements should be done before asking the people in general to buy, so the formal sale will not begin until October 18th, Saturday.

When it comes to the preservation of the inherent right of every American-born citizen to cast his vote at every election, Lawrence E. Heiny, the South Calhoun street grocer, is there.

Mr. Heiny is an enthusiastic supporter of Charles H. Buck, the non-partisan candidate for mayor. He also has been fixing up a new home at 219 Brackenridge street and expected to move in last week but his experience was just like that of everybody else, and Saturday he discovered he had to establish a residence or defer moving until after November 4. He had been living temporarily with his family at 418 East Washington boulevard.

Saturday the house had not advanced far enough to admit of moving the family but he was not daunted. He simply got an expressman, sent a Davenport over to the new house, added a pillow and a couple of blankets and took up his abode there. This enabled him to comply with the law. This morning when he got up he was snapped along with all the furniture he had in the house. He is not naturally cross but he looks that way because he hadn't been long out of bed.

ENORMOUS CROWD GREETS MR. BUCK

Biggest Meeting Held During Present Campaign in Ninth Ward.

VOTERS ARE PLEASED

The tent erected in the Ninth ward by the non-partisans for the meeting Tuesday evening at the corner of High street and St. Mary's avenue was far too small to seat the great crowd that tried to get in, and it was necessary to remove the sidewalls so those standing on the outside could hear the speakers. The meeting was the best attended gathering held in Bloomingdale during the present campaign. It was not a meeting of curiosity seekers and mere onlookers, but the crowd was composed of voters whose enthusiastic applause plainly showed, beyond question of doubt, that the Ninth ward is tired of political rule in city affairs. Bloomingdale's best citizens attended the meeting and Charles H. Buck, the non-partisan candidate for mayor was tendered such an ovation that proved he is the favorite mayoralty candidate in this campaign.

George Culler presided as chairman, and among the speakers were Judge John H. Aiken, William H. Scheiman, Judge Sol A. Wood, Attorney Arthur W. Parry and James A. Lechler, president of the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor. Mr. Buck was the last speaker and as he was introduced to the audience, thunderous applause made it impossible for him to be heard for some time. Frequently too, during his remarks, he was enthusiastically applauded.

Scheimann Comes Back.

The many different campaign issues were taken up in detail, by each speaker in turn, and William H. Scheimann, among other things again discussed the negligence of William J. Hosey, who as mayor of Fort Wayne failed to appoint a sinking fund commission, which it is said he should have done had he carried out the provisions of the law regarding this, passed by the state legislature in 1905.

"I am as good a democrat as I ever was," said Mr. Scheimann. "I am proud of President Wilson and Vice President Marshall. All the people of Fort Wayne are under a debt of gratitude to Mr. Marshall. Had not he as governor insisted upon removing the provision which allowed Mayor Hosey to succeed himself in office, Hosey might be mayor today.

"This evening's papers stated that the city today took $159,000 out of its sinking fund and paid it on its bonded indebtedness. This is the same sinking fund that contained $42,000 when Mr. Hosey took office, and 70,000 at the end of 1907. And it has grown in that way until it has reached over $160,000 today. If Mr. Hosey were still mayor and no depository law had been enacted by the legislature, the city would probably be losing about $8,000 in interest this year. And since the sinking fund increased at the rate of only about $15,000 a year, the loss in interest would be equal to more than one-half of all the direct taxes levied and collected for the sinking fund."

No Sensible Argument.

In discussing the non-partisan movement Judge John H. Aiken, chairman of the non-partisan speaking committee, pointed out to those present that there has not been a single published communication, not one criticism against the movement, that has for its foundation a good, sensible, legal, real argument. He also pointed out that all of the communications attacking the movement and candidates are not signed, except for some possible word of sentimentality, such as "Truth," or a "Voter."

"Did you ever notice in the republican column published daily any word against the democrats working for Hosey, or against Hosey himself?" asked Judge Aiken. "The only thing this G. O. P. news contains; as a rule, is paragraphs saying that all the non-partisans are traitors to the cause. If the republicans are really making an honest campaign, why don't they do as they did in previous campaigns, also say something against Hosey and the democrats? The fact is, that when the democrats see a crowd of Buck voters in a certain part of town they say, 'We had better send LaTourette out there to line those people up.' Then they charge that the non-partisan movement is nothing but an organization of corporationists. If you go to them and ask them to name the corporation they can't name a single corporation, and the reason they can't is because they know there are no corporation men in this movement, as they charge."

Parry Discusses Issues.

Mr. Parry was loudly applauded when he presented editorials from Hosey's organ denouncing Hosey and appealing to him, as mayor, to rid the city administration of the only ugly blot on it, and rid the democratic party and candidates of the suspicion of a course of four years more of police mal-administration.

Both Mr. Parry and Judge Wood urged the voters to honestly consider the issues of this campaign, to honestly consider Mr. Buck's candidacy and go to the polls next November for the purpose of divorcing Fort Wayne from old machine politics in the administration of the affairs of government.

James A. Lechler, president of the Federation of Labor, discussed the non-partisan movement from the workingmen's viewpoint and closed by stating that the taxpayers of the city have not been receiving just returns for their money paid into the city coffers as taxes.

Mysteries of Rheumatism Practically Solved

Action in the Tissues of a Remarkable Antidote

S. S. S. is a Regular Wizard in Driving Out Rheumatism.

Rheumatism is often the effect of some other blood affliction that has left its impress in the joints, muscles and mucous coverings of the body. It works into the tissue cells, those tiny, little bodies, in which nutrition goes on. And it is here that a most remarkable medicine known as S. S. S. does its most active and most effective work.

Its action is marvelous. Bed-ridden rheumatics get on their feet as if by magic. That cold, clammy sensation that made you hug a red hot stove is gone in a twinkling. That excruciating pain that made a feather lay as heavy as a ton of coal on the skin is gone. You get up and dance with glee.

Your rheumatism is gone—absolutely! It is an actual logical fact, that Swift's Sure Specific flushes your blood, gives your entire blood circulation a fine thorough bath. It just naturally and in a twinkling irrigates every atom in your body. It rushes into every cell, causes every bone, muscle, ligament, tendon, mucous surface and every nerve to thrill with freedom, with health, with newfound springiness.

And best of all, S. S. S. though a powerful searching, overwhelming enemy to pain and the causes of rheumatism is as pure as the dew on a peach blossom, as powerful as the heroic works of nature, as searching as the peremptory demand of the most exact science.

Ask for and insist upon getting S. S. S. the world's cure for rheumatism.

For private, personal advice on stubborn chronic rheumatism write at once to the Swift Specific Co., 203 Swift Building, Atlanta, Ga. Eczema Is Only Skin Deep Proven by D. D. D.

A few skin troubles originate in the blood. But very few. Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health and a famous writer on medical subjects, says:

"We shall begin to make headway with skin disease when we learn two things: first that skin disease does not come from impure blood: second, that so-called blood purifiers have no such action."

Get busy then and clear up your skin. Stop that itching and burning. Drive out those pimples.

Make up your mind to start now and give yourself a smooth, velvet complexion.

You can do it with the aid of the wonderful D. D. D. prescription—a cooling, refreshing lotion—not a salve or grease—it soothes your tender skin, opens the pores, drives out the old impurities and gives you a skin like a baby, smooth and clear.

All druggists have D. D. D. We sell it on a positive no-pay guarantee.

You don't risk a cent. Don't suffer another day. Call at our store today. Ask also about D. D. D. Soap—best for tender skin.

MASON IS AFTER ANOTHER BATTLE

Bested All the Way by Izzo and Says He Was Not Trained.

CROWD SAW BOUTS

When the November card of the Summit City Athletic association is framed it is possible that Frankie Mason and Frankie Izzo will be included as the local boy was bested all the way at Princess rink last night by Izzo and came out of the engagement badly battered about the face and shoulders.

Pitted against the classiest boy he has ever faced in a ring, Mason was forced to clinch frequently and was kept backing up all the time by Izzo, who is a boxer of the Ad Wolgast type—a boxer who is contnually boring in and plugging away wherever there is a chance for an opening.

There was no doubt among Mason's friends about his condition. He had not trained properly for the bout, and was drawn and pinched looking, and stated that he had been tempted to call the bout off a day or two before but consented to try it although he knew he was not right.

This is not offered as an excuse for his poor showing. He knew he had a tough boy to meet and unless he was ill and unable to train properly he should have been in condition. There were several times during the milling when it looked like he would be put away by his sturdy opponent but he was on his feet at the close, although if there had been a decision it would undoubtedly have gone against him.

Izzo is by far the best little battler Chicago has ever sent here to meet Mason, and another engagement between the two would undoubtedly prove interesting providing the home boxer gets himself right for the go.

Jack McHenry's crouch puzzled Billy Walters, who started in to clean up right off the reel, but was unable to land because the Lima scrapper kept his head low and was well covered most of the time. Outside of the first and tenth rounds the affair was a draw.

Walters was off at the tap of the bell and attempted to end the go with some hammer and tongs battling that kept McHenry mighty busy for the first three minutes. In the second McHenry got his bearings and in addition to sidestepping and blocking some of Walters' best efforts he stuck in a jolt now and then that plainly disconcerted the naval station pug.

From the second to the end of the ninth he held his own in pretty good shape, although he did not land as often as Walters. In the ninth a big fat fellow in the Chicago stable kept sticking his head over the floor of the ring and waving his hand at Walters very much after the fashion of a brakeman signalling his engineer to move ahead.

Just what he meant was not clear to the audience but Walters evidently interpreted it as a signal to put across a knockout, and he endeavored to following instructions. He saw that he would be unable to do this, and in one of the clinches he looked at the fat party and indicated by his attitude that he would not be able to get the sleeper through.

Taken as a whole the men put on an interesting battle, and Referee Eddie Santry kept them going and did not allow any more stalling than was in keeping with good ring tactics. The crowd was one of the best the promters have had in some time and indicated a local interest in the boxing game.

As a curtain raiser Kid White took a crack at Young Ellenwood while the latter was on the floor and was promptly waived off the platform for fouling his opponent.

Ross, carded for the second battle against Pummell, went at such a furious pace in the opening rounds that he was forced to quit at the opening of the fifth.

PRINCETON TRAINER THINKS HE HAS FOUND REAL FOOTBALL STAR EARLY IN THE SEASON OF 1913.

In one respect college football is similar to organized baseball—phenoms are discovered early in the season and some of them stick, but the majority fade.

In Law, right half of the Tigers, however, Trainer Keene Fitzpatrick, once side partner of "Hurry Up" Yost, of Michigan, believes he has discovered one of these football marvels who spring into the limelight and stay there.

Law is a clever kicker and his dodging runs and ability to get over the ground have won him, temporarily at least, a place in the 'varsity back field, where the shrewd Fitzpatrick expects to see him in the great game against Yale.

MULLIN FORGETS HE WAS SNUBBED

Raises Purse for the Fellow Who Turned Trick on Him.

DID NOT LIKE HIM

Washington, Oct. 8.—The animosities of ball players are not as deadly as they have been pictured. Their profession is of a sort of fraternal society, and a member of it is treated with consideration by all other players, even though of a personality generally disliked.

An example of this was given in Washington last summer. Once in a while an individual of snobbish tendencies breaks into the majors. None lasts long, for the baseball axiom that "it takes a good fellow to be a star" is literally true. One of these exceptions who had run his short, supercilious career and retired thoroughly disliked, became stranded in Walter Johnson's town, penniless and ill. He had played with New York and Pittsburg in the National league, and with Detroit in the American. He was a Tiger pitcher when George Mullin came up from the bushes in 1902. The day the recruit first appeared at the old Bennet park a Tiger who had become acquainted with him steered him up to a group of Jungaleere to introduce him.

"Mr. Blank, Mr. Mullin, our new pitcher," he said.

The veteran sneeringly turned his head and resumed conversation with another player without a word of welcome, though he did hold out his hand and let Mullin clasp it.

The veteran was the star of the Detroit hurling corps for two seasons, but went back rapidly. He held his job for a while through the various modes of stalling known to experienced pitchers, including blaming his support and "luck" for his losses, but finally was cut adrift and got into the National league. He lasted there only until the managers discovered his weaknesses and wiles and then was turned back over the bitter road all ball players must travel who try to remain in the select circle after they have passed their prime.

This former pitcher was not supercilious when he met Mullin in Washington last July. He was a suppliant for favor. One dollar would look like opulence to him just then. Could Mullin help him out?

Big George asked him of his plight and where he was taying. At the ball yard that afternoon, when the Tigers had gathered, he told them of the matter, took off his hat and chucked a dollar into it.

"I don't like the lobster, but he's a ball player," he said.

The others contributed similar amounts and similar remarks, after which Mullin took the hat to the Washington clubhouse where the Nationals chipped in. Not a man on either team had a good word for the old player, for his disposition in his days of prosperity was well known to them, though very few of them had seen contemporaneous service with him.

But he was a ball player, and that evening Mullin hunted him up and handed him $35 to pay his expenses to his old home.

A MARVELOUS ESCAPE.

"My little boy had a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Eastiams of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of croup. As luck would have it, I had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger." CAMPED IN RAIN ALL NIGHT LONG

Some Brought Blankets to Sleep at the Gates of Shibe Park.

ATHLETICS ALL RIGHT

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—The battle for supremacy in the baseball world between the champions of the National and American leagues which opened auspiciously for the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday on the Polo grounds in New York shifted today to Shibe park in this city. The Giants, National league winners, under the leadership of John McGraw, came thirsty for revenge for their defeat, while the American league pennant winners were determined to repeat their success on the Polo grounds and make it two straight.

Despite a drizzling rain which set in before midnight and continued until early today, more than a thousand fans camped outside Shibe park, many of them since 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in order to get choice bleacher seats for the second contest. If the predictions of the weather man hold out, these devoted followers of the national pastime may have their long vigil in vain.

"Take a chance," was, however, the motto of the throng, which when the gates were opened lined the streets surrounding the park, and numbered many thousands. Weariness as a result of their long wait was forgotten when those in line began to talk about the Athletic victory of yesterday. With the Giants once defeated on their home grounds, the waiting fans felt certain that they were to win another victory for their heroes. A squad of policemen saw that but one person had but a single place in line and that order was maintained. Most of the people said they intended to see the game themselves, but there were speculators who disposed of their places to late arrivals. Peanuts, sandwich and sausage vendors did a thriving business along the line.

Brought Their Lunches.

Many of the men and boys, however, brought their own lunches and some of the early arrivals came with food enough for four meals. Soap boxes, boards, camp stools and improvised seats of all descriptions were pushed against the park wall so that many of the waiters were quite comfortable. One of them had provided himself with blankets and secured several hours' sleep during the night. Two enterprising youngsters had rigged up a long board resting upon two soap boxes, and sold seats thereon at 25 cents each. The neighborhood of Shibe park was rife with activity this morning. Householders whose residences border the park on two sides were busy arranging seats on their roofs, from which spectators may see the game and for which good prices were secured. Hundreds of persons went to the grounds for no other purpose than to see the eager fans.

Ticket speculators were much in evidence on the street today and at the hotels and a number of coupons were disposed of at many times their face value. One $2 seat for the three days sold for $40. The venders generally refused to sell the seats separately. Police arrangements include a special detail of men to guard the Giants' leader and all his players while in this city. The plans of the police for the games are the most elaborate that were ever made by the local authorities in connection with baseball.

Plenty of Policemen on Hand.

Five hundred bluecoats and more than fifty plain clothes men had been assigned to duty at the park while many detectives were distributed through the crowd in the stands to protect the spectators from pickpockets. It is said orders have been issued to suppress open betting on the contest within the confines of the park.

Weather conditions delayed the managers in determining their batteries. However, Mathewson, McGraw's standby in many previous campaigns, was early first choice for the Giants, while Plank, veteran of many seasons, had the call as Mack's choice.

An overcast sky made it possible that both managers would change their plans. In that case speed rather than the deceptive delivery in which the veterans excel was counted necessary, and Shawky or Bush, youngsters on Mack's team, each had a chance to go to the mound for the home team, while Jeff Tesreau, who held the Athletics hitless in the last two innings of yesterday's conflict, looked like the selection for New York. Walter Schang, whose all round play at the receiving end has been a revelation to baseball enthusiasts here this season, and who distinguished himself in his first world series game yesterday, looked like the probable catcher, although Lapp is usually coupled with Plank. Meyers was most certain to be McGraw's choice for that position.

Merkle Has Bad Ankle.

All the regulars on the Athletic team arrived home in good condition, and were ready to take their positions today. Fred Merkle, first baseman on the New York team, was suffering from a sprained ankle, received yesterday, and McGraw had a problem to fill that position in case Merkle did not play. His absence would have weakened the Giant's infield. McGraw had not indicated at noon how he hoped to solve the problem.

Despite this apparent handicap the Giants' manager last night appeared confident that he would be able to reverse the result of yesterday. He declared that luck played a great part in the Athletics' victory. On the other hand the American leaguers say that New York had all the breaks of the game or the score would have been even greater against them.

The Giants took things easy at their hotel prior to the game, keeping indoors much of the time because of the damp weather. Many followers of the New Yorkers called on McGraw and his players and encouraged them to fight on and win.

The Athletics, of course, were heroes for the day wherever they appeared. All of them had orders to report at Shibe park by 10 o'clock and there was a big crowd about the players' gate all morning. "Home Run" Baker was given an enthusiastic reception. Everybody wanted to shake his hand and slap him on the back. Collins, whose wonderful playing in yesterday's game had much to do with victory, was also noisily welcomed. Bender, the big Indian pitcher, having won his game, was practically excused for the day, but he expected to put on a uniform and take an easy workout.

It is to this fact that we point with far greater pride than the rapid development of the business itself.

There will be no discrimination nor favortism. Everyone, regardless of position or financial status, will receive the same consideration. Everyone will be granted the same price, and you can continue to come here in the future as you have in the past, confidently knowing that no one will receive more attentive and courteous consideration, nor be able to receive a lower price for an article than you.

The Liberal and Dignified Credit System that has always characterized this business will prevail here for all time. We believe the store that grants home builders the means for beautifying their home, making it more pleasant and hospitable, more cozy and comfy, conducive toward the wholesome and happy home spirit, is doing a service that is bound to be appreciated for all time by its patrons. We are building for the future, not only for today, when we say that we will guarantee credit on anything you select at any time.

TRANSFERRED ELEVEN MACHINES

Only Three Remain to Be Sent to Decatur Shops by the Wabash.

ELECTRIC WORKS RENTS COOMBS BLDG.

Will Use It for Warehouse for Surplus Material—Shops News.

Another machine, a bolt maker, known in the shop as a "bull dozer," was loaded today for shipment to Decatur, Ill., to be installed in the big new shops of the Wabash. This machine was located in the blacksmith shop and was operated by Emil Fiedler, who has been assigned to other duties. This is the eleventh machine to be taken out of the local shops of the Wabash so far and there remain three that have been marked for shipment. They are the big steam hammer operated by M. R. Hardendorf and gang in the blacksmith shop; the large planner in the machine shop, operated by Louis D. Miller, and a lathe in the annex to the machine shop operated by A. S. Brintzenhofe. These machines will be removed the latter part of the week or the early part of next week. As fast as the machines were removed from the local shops the men who operated them were transferred to the night gang and given work on other machines. General Foreman Henry Eisele, who is to take charge of the Decatur shops, left for that city last night, to look for a house in which to go to housekeeping, and will probably not return here to resume personal charge of the local shops. That duty has devolved upon W. J. Welch, foreman of the erecting department, temporarily at least. No appointment as successor of Mr. Eisele has been made.

INSPECTING THE TRACKS.

A supervisor and section foremen's inspection of the tracks of the Western division of the Pennsylvania is in progress today and tomorrow. It commenced at Clarke at 11:15 o'clock this morning, when the special train consisting of two observation cars and the locomotive started eastward. The train carries about forty people and it will reach Fort Wayne at 5 o'clock this evening. Immediately after the arrival of train No. 39 from the east tomorrow, which will bring in the section foremen from points east of Fort Wayne, the inspection train will start over the Crestline end of the division, reaching Crestline at 5 o'clock. All of the section men west of Fort Wayne went to Clark this morning and joined the inspection party and will return home on train No. 11 this evening. The section men from the east end of the division will be handled in a similar manner. Officials with the party are Division Engineer Guy Scott, Assistant Trainmaster C. L. Hamilton, Assistant Division Engineer Harvey Hall, Signal Supervisor C. L. Bartholome and Road Supervisors C. Shinneman and R. Pett, of the eastern end of the division, and L. M. Berlin and Fred Pelzer, of the western end. Conductor Lipsett, Brakeman George Bradley, Engineer George Ek and Fireman Charles Sheckler compose the train crew.

GOES TO HOSPITAL FOR OPERATION

Miss Theresa Schallenberger, former time clerk at the General Electric Lamp works and the daughter of Car Inspector Foreman Stephen Schallenberger, of the Pennsylvania, will go to the St. Joseph hospital tomorrow for an operation for relief from appendicitis. Miss Schallenberger has been suffering from the malady several months and it was most severe on several occasions while she and her father were visiting in Germany a few weeks ago.

HAD FINGER BADLY CRUSHED.

William Kelsey, operator of a drill press in the machine room at the Fort Wayne Electric works, got the index finger of his left hand caught in the machinery this morning and the end of the digit was badly bruised and torn. Dr. Fred Schultz was called to the factory dispensary to dress the wounded digit, after which the young man went home.

FINGER BADLY PINCHED.

While handling a sand box stud in the Pennsylvania erecting shop yesterday, Machinist G. A. Lash got the index finger of his left hand under the thing and the digit was badly bruised and cut. He was attended by the company surgeon.

ESTABLISH ANOTHER WAREHOUSE

The Fort Wayne Electric works has taken a lease upon the E. H. Coombs building on East Columbia street, and is fitting it up for warehouse purposes. It is proposed to store therein surplus material and shop products to relieve the somewhat congested store house at the big plant on Broadway.

M. J. MARONEY HAS RETURNED.

Engineer and Mrs. M. J. Maroney have returned home after a several weeks' sojourn at the sanitarium in Hot Springs. Both were benefited by the treatment, but Mr. Maroney is not yet able to work. He called at the Nickel Plate roundhouse yesterday to see the "boys."

WABASH PAY DAY.

Yardmaster George Francisco, of the Wabash, will be in Fort Wayne next Friday. The amount of the pay rolls is gradually dropping as work in the maintenance of way department diminishes.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Herbert Christen has taken employment as watchman at the Winter street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad.

After an illness of eight or ten days, Engineer C. A. Long reported for work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Mrs. Clark, wife of Nickel Plate Fireman J. R. Clark, has gone to Fostoria, Ohio, to visit relatives a few days.

Mrs. J. B. Bright, wife of the Nickel Plate engineer, is at the bedside of her sick mother in Tippecanoe.

Brakeman B. H. Hire, who had been sick, resumed work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Time Clerk Robert Neher, of the Wabash shops, was off duty today on account of the funeral of his cousin.

Machinist Dennis O'Conner has recovered from his illness and reported for duty at the Pennsylvania shops.

R. A. Buchman, a helper, took employment at the Pennsylvania machine shop this morning.

L. E. Newson, traveling freight agent of the Lackawanna, was in the city yesterday, looking up business.

Supt. J. C. Sullivan, of the Wabash, is in the city today on business for the company.

Nickel Plate Conductor W. O. Miller is taking a lay-off to look after some private business.

Machinist Ed Kline, who was sick three or four days, reported for work in the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Conductor G. A. Bowman, who was looking after some business matters, reported for duty on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Machinist C. J. Majors and Boilermaker Walter Cherry, of the Nickel Plate, went to Lake James last night to spend a few days' fishing.

Pennsylvania Engineer W. F. Biedewig, who was injured while on duty in Crestline two weeks ago, has recovered and this morning reported for work.

After an absence of two weeks on account of an injured eye, E. L. Roth resumed work in the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning.

General Manager F. S. Hunting, of the Fort Wayne Electric works, is looking after business at Madison, Wis., for the company today.

Fireman J. M. Averill, who had his legs scalded two weeks ago, and Fireman H. A. Swanson, who was sick two weeks, reported for work on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road this morning.

Norval Gorham, Nickel Plate telegraph operator, and Ed Kolb, of the Eckart Packing company, have returned from Coldwater lake, where they spent three days most successfully catching fish.

General Foreman G. A. Szink, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, and Mrs. Szink, accompanied by some relatives from Altoona, Pa., are in Chicago today, shopping and taking in the sights.

Engineer Dennis McCarthy, of the Nickel Plate, is looking after some private business and his runs, on passenger trains 3 and 2, are being taken by Engineer George Quidor.

Nickel Plate Engineer P. F. Adams has returned to the city after a ten days' visit in and about Pittsburg, his boyhood home. He has reported for duty on the road.

Yesterday Engineer M. R. Snyder, of the Nickel Plate, received a message from his wife, who has been visiting in Findlay, stating that her aunt was dead. Engineer Snyder went to that city last night to remain until after the funeral.

Last night Conductors G. F. Baum, C. B. McCormick and Peter Collins, of the Nickel Plate, accompanied by their wives, left for Chattanooga, Tenn., to attend the meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the B. R. T. Several other parties left for the same place Sunday.

Alfred D. Diem, apprentice at the Pennsylvania machine shop, has obtained a twelve months' leave of absence for the purpose of taking a course in mechanical engineering in the Normal university at Valparaiso. Mr. Diem is a member of the Pennsylvania shop ball team.

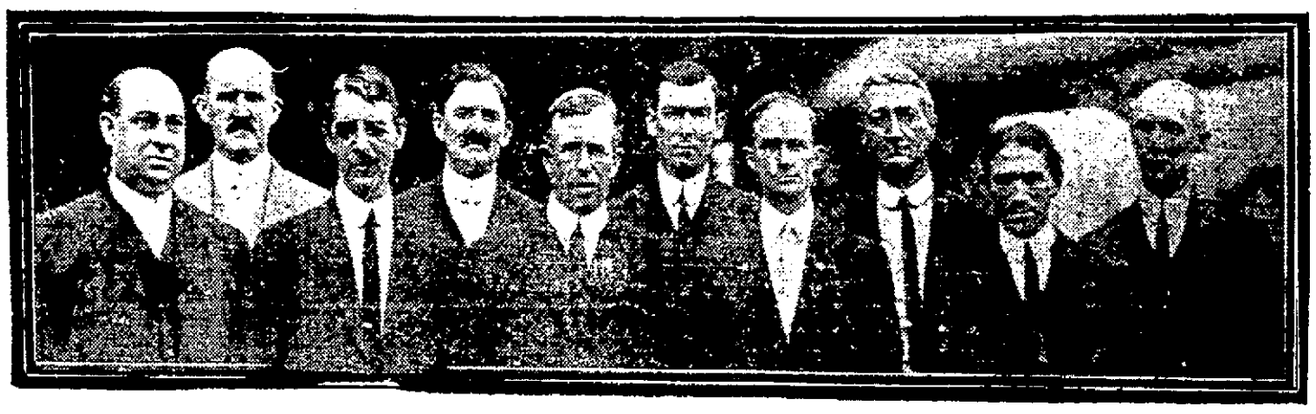
L. E. Bowser, consulting engineer of S. F. Bowser & Company, will go to Bellevue the latter part of the week to join his wife and remain over Sunday, the guest of Conductor and Mrs. C. Sauer, who formerly resided in Fort Wayne.

The Barbers' union at the meeting Monday night voted down a proposition to close the shops at 6 o'clock in the evenings, except on Saturday. Some time ago the bosses conceded the right of the men to quit work at 10 instead of 11 o'clock Saturday nights and in view of this fact, the barbers decided to ask for no more concessions for awhile.

Shop Clerk J. H. Hobrock has inaugurated a membership campaign for the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association and has assigned the machine shop to Leo J. Cullen and the round house to John Hebert as territory in which to solicit members. There are a number of eligibles in the shops without protection to themselves and families from financial distress in case of death, accidental disability or sickness and they will take advantage of the opportunity to secure it. At least they ought to.

The federal government has taken cognizance of the Nickel Plate wreck at Fairview, Pa., which resulted in the death of two persons last Saturday morning, and the interstate commerce commission has sent two of its men to the scene for the purpose of conducting an investigation. Members of the train crews have been questioned and train orders and messages have been gone over. The government men will also attend the official inquest which is scheduled to be held at Erie, Pa., Friday.

Men Who Keep Account of Material Used for All Purposes on the Pennsylvania Northwest System



The above picture represents the division storekeepers of the Pennsylvania Northwest system, who are this week holding their monthly meeting in Fort Wayne. In the front row, reading from left to right, are the portraits of Paul J. Zimmerman, of Chicago; C. A. Jackson, of Allegheny; C. W. Soule, of Crestline; F. C. Grubbs, of Toledo, and W. C. J. Auman, of Fort Wayne. In the back row are portraits of B. Shipley, of Wellsville; C. Blessing, of Cleveland; W. T. Weschler, of Mahoningtown; P. V. Zurbuch, of Fort Wayne, and Charles P. Cherry, of Fort Wayne. With the exception of Mr. Zurbuch, who is chief clerk at the east car shops, and Mr. Auman, who is a clerk and stenographer in the local stores department, all represented in the pictures are division storekeepers. The monthly meetings generally continue about three days and at them everything connected with the supplies department is gone over carefully and each storekeeper is given opportunity to express his views on all subjects coming before the meeting. C. P. Cherry, storekeeper of the Western division, presides as chairman at all of the meetings. Nowadays the division storekeeper is an important factor in the organization of the working force of a railway system. He must keep an accurate record of material coming in, used in the work in the shops and elsewhere and that remaining in stock and be able at a moment's notice to tell how much material of any kind there is in stock and how much has been consumed during certain periods. There are also records to be made for the interstate commerce commission. To do all this the division storekeeper must not only be an expert accountant, but must be able to surround himself with a number of competent clerks and assistants. Mr. Cherry is the oldest division storekeeper in point of service on the Northwest division of the Pennsylvania. He succeeded the late Enoch Cox, who died about fifteen years ago.

Mr. Hosey's Side of It

Fort Wayne, Oct. 8, 1913—Editor The Sentinel: In last evening's issue of the Sentinel you gave publicity to an interview in which William H. Scheimann is quoted as saying that owing to "Mr. Hosey's negligence in not appointing certain sinking fund commissioers when he took office January 1, 1906, which he claims the law required him to do, the city thereby lost about $5,300 interest on the funds in question."

This statement with variations has been made by Mr. Scheimann several times within the past week and particularly at the independent meeting at the court house last Friday night. In reply to Mr. Scheimann's mendacious and untruthful statements I will submit the following propositions and challenge their successful contradiction by either Mr. Scheimann or any one else:

First—I, as mayor, had no right or authority whatever to appoint sinking fund commissioners either upon taking office January first, 1906, or at any time thereafter up to December 1, 1907, when the sinking fund law was superseded by the present depository law and that nobody knows that this is true better than Mr. Scheimann.

Second—That had I, as mayor, attempted to make the appointments in question, the act would have been illegal and entirely void in law, and that Mr. Scheimann likewise knows this to be true.

Third—That had there been any law making it the duty of a mayor to appoint sinking fund commissioners, as Mr. Scheimann claims, the duty of making such appointments would have devolved upon Mayor Berghoff and not upon myself, as alleged, in asmuch as the law referred to by Mr. Scheimann became effective early in the year of 1905, during the term of Mr. Berghoff and not in January, 1906, when I assumed office. These facts are well known by Mr. Scheimann or at least should be, before he essays to break into print.

Fourth—Had it been the duty of the mayor to appoint sinking fund commissioners under the cities and towns law of 1905, as Mr. Scheimann claims, Mayor Berghoff would have appointed them without doubt inasmuch as he appointed a board of park commissioners which the same law made provision for.

Fifth—Assuming for the sake of argument that the appointments should have been made and the sinking fund conserved in the maner suggested, it can be conclusively shown that results would not have been financially as advantageous to the city as has resulted from the method and policy actually followed.

When Mr. Scheimann successfully answers or controverts the above propositions it will be a pleasure for me to go into detail and discuss the question at greater length.

Respectfully,
WM. J. HOSEY.

The junior class of the high school held a meeting last night after school, and appointed the following committee to take up the subject of bettering social conditions in the school: Dorothy Knight, Adell Warner and Robert Hattersley. The freshmen also appointed a committee for the same purpose as follows: Harold Stolte, William Short and Gladys Hadley.

SOAP ON HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF, SCALP GETS DRY, HAIR FALLS OUT

Girls! Get a 25 cent bottle and try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse."

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through the hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it —Adv.

HOUSES AND ROOMS FOR RENT

MANY people have room they could just as well rent as to allow to remain empty. They are rooms which the family seldom or ever uses but are kept furnished at more or less expense and which produce no revenue. Why not rent them and get the money? Others have houses which sometimes remain vacant for months because they do not let it become generally known that the houses are for rent. At this season of year, when people are returning from vacations, and new people are coming to town, is an especially good time to make public the fact that these rooms or houses are for rent. How shall people be informed that these houses and rooms can be rented? It is very simple and very inexpensive. Use the classified advertising columns of The Sentinel. CALL UP 'PHONE 173.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Wheat rallied today owing to reports that country deliveries northwest were showing a decided falling off. Opening prices were unchanged to ¼c lower and a further sag took place but then an advance ensued to above last night's level.

Generally favorable weather led to a setback for corn until wheat turned strong. Quotations started ¼c off to a shade up, suffered an additional dip and rallied to above the previous close.

Oats, although sluggish, followed corn. The market scoffed at assertions that the Canadian shipments would prove burdensome.

Lower prices for hogs weakened prices but packers gave the market support. Prices were from 5c decline with a later upturn.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 8.—A rapid decline in Union Pacific made it the conspicuous stock at the opening today. The opening sale was a block of 2,500 shares at 156½ to 156. On subsequent transactions it broke to 155¼, a loss of two points. First sales of other active stocks showed few important variations from yesterday's close. The drop in Union Pacific, however, undermined the list and quotations were lowered in the first few minutes. Reading lost a point and Western Union 1½.

The severe break in Union Pacific was all that was needed to bring about renewal of heavy selling, and the market was nervous and unsettled throughout the morning. There was no obvious cause for the pronounced weakness of Union Pacific and selling was generally attributed to the belief that a delay was probable in distribution of the extra cash dividend which many traders had predicted.

The steel group further reflected price reductions and tariff influences, and United States Steel broke through 55, which was more than ten points under its top figure of a fortnight ago. Bonds were easy.

SUMMARY OF WEATHER CONDITIONS

While cloudy and unsettled weather conditions have continued over much of the country east of the Rockies during the last twenty-four hours, the rainfall has not been extensive, some light scattered rains being reported from the middle and the upper Mississippi valley, Michigan and the Atlantic coast states, while over the Louisiana and Texas coast some heavy rainfall has occurred, New Orleans reporting nearly two inches yesterday. Unusually warm weather for the season continues over the central and eastern states, but much cooler weather is spreading slowly southeastward from the British northwest, where freezing temperatures are general this morning.

A tropical hurricane is apparently approaching the Carolina coast, where high winds and rain prevail this morning, with a rapidly falling barometer.

Cloudy and unsettled conditions will continue in this section tonight and Thursday but rain is not probable. It will be slightly cooler tonight.

ANOTHER CLUE FAILS.

Hair Pulled From River at Newcastle Not That of Missing Girl.

Newcastle, Ind., Oct. 8.—The hair that a fisherman pulled from the river here yesterday was not that of Catherine Winters, who has been missing for eight months, but probably was from the discarded switch of some woman. This was the decision of the police today when it was learned that it was false hair the fisherman had found on his hook.

FORBIDS MOVING SALOON.

Liquors to Be Banished from Dining Cars in Ohio.

Columbus, O., Oct. 8.—On any after Nov. 4 no mint juleps, no cocktails, not even whisky straight, sour wine or beer will be served on railroad dining cars in Ohio. Nothing stronger than grape juice will be found perched on trays of colored waiters. You may kick all you please, but there will be "nothing doing." The only hope is to carry a "little brown jug" of your own.

Attorney General Hogan has found that the constitution forbids a moving saloon, and consequently has instructed the state liquor license commissioners to issue no license to railroad companies for selling "wet goods." The commission will a bide by Mr. Hogan's rule.

WANTED TO "DAZZLE BRIDE.

Bridegroom Under Arrest at Kokomo Admits Part in Robbery.

Indianapolis, Oct. 8.—Clarence Lamberson, alias Ralph Parker, who a month ago posing as a son of a Texas millionaire, married Miss Irene Hoy here, was arrested in Kokomo yesterday on a charge of being implicated in robbing a laborer here of $1,800. Lamberson deserted his bride ten days ago in a Chicago hotel and he told the police here that he had a wife and child in Kokomo. The prisoner, the police say, has confessed his part in the robbery asserting he used the money to "dazzle" Miss Hoy and to pay the expenses of his honeymoon.

RALSTON GIVES DILLON FREEDOM

Man Convicted of Slaying Former Monroeville Woman Pardoned.

HE IS HELD INNOCENT

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 8.—George W. Dillon, sentenced from Lagrange county to the state penitentiary for having caused the death of his wife, by poisoning, was pardoned yesterday by Governor Ralston. The state executive held that the man was convicted purely on circumstantial evidence; that evidence that would have tended to prove the defense's theory of suicide was not allowed to be introduced. The man was innocent, the governor held.

Mrs. Dillon died at her home in Mongo, Lagrange county, from poison, and an indictment charging her husband with murder in the first degree later was returned. In March, 1912, he was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to serve 2 to 21 years in the state prison.

Governor Ralston, in freeing Dillon, who is 63 years old, points out that the prisoner always had borne a good reputation and that he is now ill from a malady from which physicians say he cannot recover because of his advanced age.

It also appeared that a druggist who sold poison to a mysterious woman about whom evidence was introduced at the trial, was not allowed by the court to tell of his conversation with the woman. The court held that it was not proper cross examination. The druggist later made affidavit that the woman had said she was Mrs. George W. Dillon, of Mongo, and wanted the poison to kill mice. The defense contended that Mrs. Dillon committed suicide but the court refused to allow the evidence, which it was believed would have proven this. Dillon will be released at once.

Mrs. Dillon, for whose death Dillon was convicted, was once a resident of Monroeville, Allen county.

THE UNITED SPECIALISTS

IN UNITY THERE IS STRENGTH.

A chain is only so strong as its weakest links. This proposition of unity is one that has come to the front recently and in most every issue of any importance it is the union of many interests in one direction that really attains desired results.

The labor unions of today are invincible when working in combination with a common goal in view. The Balkan was was another striking modern demonstration of what could be done by a number of small armies, when matched against a common foe. And so this same proposition applies throughout to everything in one manner or another.

A number of men working with a definite end in view accomplish their aim quicker, better and more complete than one man. The obstacles are more readily surmounted and the summit attained with less effort.

Applying this principle to the cure of disease, the United Specialists are the acme of ability. They examine a patient completely, each doctor examining the patient according to his particular field and those conditions which are found abnormal are then reported and counsel taken together and then only is a diagnosis made by an expert diagnostician and a course of treatment outlined. In this manner those who are suffering are able to have the real cause of their troubles attended to at once and the hidden monster which is gnawing at their vitals is immediately attacked and conquered.

These United Specialists have at present in their institute at 124 E. Washington street a staff of four graduate, licensed and highly experienced men. Men who are especially trained and educated in this line of work. You must bear in mind that the treatment of chronic and so-called incurable diseases is vastly different from the treatment of acute and infectious conditions.

Read the following testimonial:

To Whom This May Concern:

October 3, 1913.

I began treatment on August 20 with the United Specialists for a very aggravated case of rheumatism which was so bad that I could hardly get about and was practically unable to do any work whatever. Their treatment has so far relieved me that I am at this time a well man, and if my testimonial will be of any value in inducing others to take treatment I am sure that the United Specialists will be able to do as much for them as they did for me.

HARRY PICKETT,
1305 E. Wayne St.

The treatment of these chronic conditions of men and women is a science in itself and can only be successfully undertaken by men who have had experience in the other methods of treatment as well as in this.

The United Specialists charge nothing for a complete examination but only those persons who are sincerely desirious of being cured need apply because these doctors are busy and cannot afford to waste valuable time.

Their hours are 9-12, 1-5, 7-8. Sunday 9-12 only. Lady attendant always present.

Cuts the High Cost OF Living

There should be a Universal Food Chopper in every home. Is a convenience in canning time and the source of many savory dishes the entire year around. Cuts meat, nuts, fruits, crackers, etc. Cuts clean, wholesome pieces and does not grind the masses to a pulp and squeeze the nourishing juices into the waste. Can be taken apart and easily cleaned, stays sharp longest and all-in-all is the best Food Chopper ever invented. Get one.
